

RONALD T. SCARAMUZZA, CPA

215/419-5715 | rscara@bbdcpa.com

Ron is a partner in our firm's Not-For-Profit Group and also leads the firm's services for government entities.

Throughout his more than three decades of service to not-for-profit organizations, government entities, and public and privately held commercial enterprises, Ron has developed a reputation for consistently providing superior client service and guidance. Clients appreciate Ron's deep understanding of the unique issues facing organizations in today's difficult and consistently evolving environment.

Ron's not-for-profit expertise includes:

- Compliance procedures and reporting requirements included in Government Auditing Standards as well as the provisions of the Uniform Guidance
- Assisting clients in the development and/or modification of their accounting and reporting systems to facilitate their government report preparation process
- Assisting clients in the selection, development and implementation of their accounting, reporting, budgeting and cash management systems
- Issues related to tax laws and regulations, including the unrelated business income tax, public charity or private foundation status, lobbying expenditures and classification of service providers as employees or independent contractors

Ron is a member of the American and Pennsylvania Institutes of Certified Public Accountants and also has served on the PICPA Peer Review Committee.

In addition, he has more than 10 years of experience performing peer reviews of other public accounting firms' quality control systems on behalf of the AICPA and various state societies.

Ron is a graduate of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in economics.

The Not-For-Profit and Government Groups at BBD provide audit and tax services for more than 250 not-for-profit organizations and government entities in the Greater Philadelphia area. For more information, visit bbdcpa.com.
