

WORKPLACE EXPRESS

EXCEPTIONAL CHALLENGES REQUIRE EXCEPTIONAL SOLUTIONS

Many organisations have been forced to change their way of working at very short notice due to the Coronavirus outbreak. This fast transition poses major challenges for many employees who are now required to use digital tools that they might never have used before.

But it also poses major challenges for organisations that need to reach out quickly to their employees with clear information on the current situation, as well as guidance on how the digital tools work and should be used. Businesses want to provide a sense of security and make it possible for employees to continue working in the best possible way.

TARGETED COMMUNICATION

With new guidelines, restrictions and information coming from every possible channel on a daily basis, it's important to create a feeling of control and safety for your employees .

Workplace Express enables you to provide structured news feeds that help you get started quickly, and to deliver clear, targeted information that reaches everyone in your organisation. It's easy to direct information to different parts of your organisation depending on geographical location or organisational structure. With targeted information, it's easy for your employees to stay informed and feel in control.

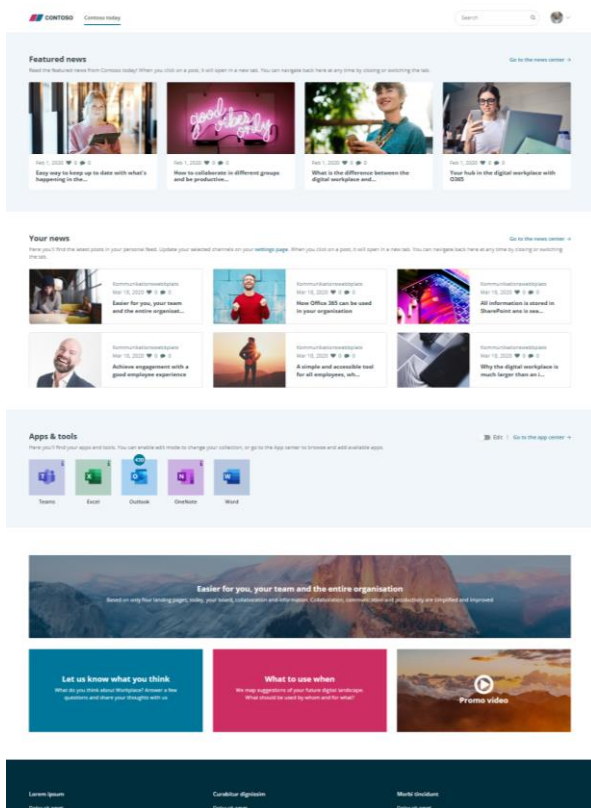

Workplace Express delivers information in a modern and attractive format. Of course, it is also possible to read the information on both desktop and mobile devices, so you can reach out to your employees in the office, in the field, or even on the bus.

"IT SHOULD BE EASY TO GET IT RIGHT"

EASY INTRODUCTION OF NEW TOOLS

In addition to providing clear information for everyone, it is important for organisations to help as their employees to continue doing their job well. For some, this may require learning new digital tools.

With Workplace Express, the transition is made easier when you can send apps and tools directly to the people who need them, together with tips that make it easier to get started.

A SOLUTION TO GROW WITH

Workplace Express is a future-proof choice that utilises the modern features of Microsoft Office 365.

Workplace Express contains a subset of the features we offer in our standard Core Workplace platform – a complete digital workplace that delivers an enterprise solution for news, information and collaboration tools.

Like Workplace Express, Core Workplace is created to simplify the workday of each employee. Workplace presents information based on the employee's profile and personal preferences.

If you want to upgrade from Workplace Express, at a later date, and add more productivity and collaboration modules, we can easily add more features from Core Workplace without having to start from the beginning.

Core Workplace is a solution that is regularly updated and already successfully used by many companies in different industries, making it a safe choice as the basis for your digital workplace.

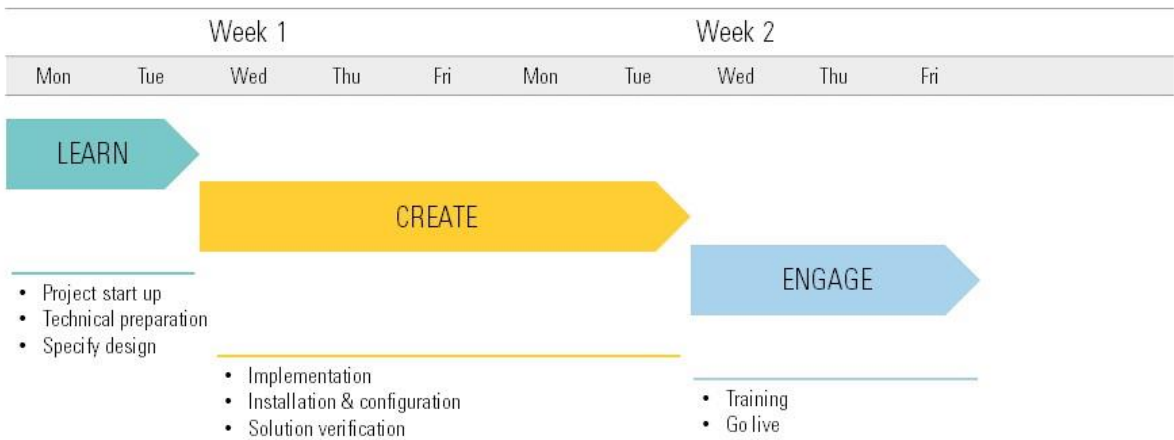

Workplace Express is license free for the first three months!

EXPRESS DELIVERY

The introduction of Workplace Express is based on a proven methodology that we have used many times before. We focus on the most important features so that you get a functioning communication platform in place as soon as possible.

We don't ask any unnecessary questions, but instead present recommendations that you can act upon quickly. In this way we can offer a solution that is ready to use within two weeks of our first meeting. That's what we call express delivery.
