

On-Site Engineering Services

| Customer pain points: | Customer requirements: |
|--|---|
| Reduce OPEX by third party repair Well trained partners with dedicated H&S & Quality excellence Streamline processes to reach service level agreements Supporting integrated systems Shorten time to market for new products and services An experienced project manager that acts as a single point of contact Professional services for assets to keep their value | Current departments/partners are not reaching delivery service level agreements Small work contractors limited resources & competencies Ability to ramp up quickly & efficiently Single point of contact with quality, real-time reporting Systems & processes not aligned to customers operating systems Lack of partner dedicated H&S & quality excellence |
| Shields Solution according to the pain points: | |
| | A full portfolio of On-Site Engineering Services enables to create a customized solution for our customers: - Engineer Furnish & Install - Deinstallation Services - Battery Maintenance & Monitoring Service - External Alarms Retrofit Service - DC Power Service - Site Clearance Service - Preventive and Corrective Maintenance Site Facility Service - Audits & Quality Assurance Service |

Recruitment Service

Unique selling points:

- ⁻ We are more flexible, less costly and provide a more dedicated service than most OEM vendor suppliers
- ⁻ Our Unique Decommissioning links with our "environmental best in class" Asset Recovery value generating model
- We assure quality and environmental standards compliance
 - Trip hazards are removed
 - Improved work environment
 - Safety equipment is approved for use
- ⁻ We are the best fitting complementary multi-vendor partner with the necessary telecoms and environmental certifications
- Technical capabilities to find alternative solutions. We genuinely 'think outside the box' for you
- Our historical data combined with our market knowledge creates great solutions

References:

