AND MONTENEGRO: ACTIVE VACATION DESTINATIONS

dear travelers

Tamsen Resor
Founder

My first glimpse of Dubrovnik was in July of 2002. The car I was riding in rounded a bend on a mountain road to reveal the green hills and rocky coast of Lokrum Island below. Then Dubrovnik's mosaic of red tile roofs and stone city walls set against the deep blue Adriatic came into view. I was captivated instantly.

I bought a house, a sea kayak, and a bike and made Dubrovnik my home.

I immediately fell in love with Croatia's unspoiled Dalmatian coast. It is a true paradise for active or adventure travelers like me. In this small region the forces of nature, history, and European culture converge to create a destination of beauty and wonder.

I founded Adriatic Kayak Tours (AKT) to offer travelers the perfect blend of activity and relaxation in surroundings that continue to stun and charm visitors. Our flexible tours are designed to satisfy your spirit of exploration and your need for a rewarding vacation. I invite you to take this incredible journey with me and AKT. You'll return home refreshed and energized.

Sincerely,

Founder

escape

Open a door to another world.

Escape to a magical place where a brilliant blue sea, cascading waterfalls, sunlit beaches, stunning vistas and centuries-old architecture mesh with modern-day cities and quaint fishing villages.

Southern Dalmatia's rich history, vibrant culture, and spectacular landscape provide the foundation for a truly enriching and exciting vacation experience.

The medieval walled city of Dubrovnik, on the east coast of the Adriatic Sea, has inspired poets and enchanted travelers for generations. It is a jewel of breath taking beauty, sometimes called the new Riviera or the new Capri.

Here, in Dubrovnik, Adriatic Kayak Tours makes its home base. We know that you will be captivated by our city, our coastline, and our people.

welcome!

Let Adriatic Kayak Tours unlock the portal to one of Europe's best-kept secrets. We invite you to explore and discover the wonders of this incredible paradise with us.

Combine sea kayaking in Croatia, rafting Montenegro's Tara River, and hiking Albania's remote mountain trails for the ultimate Balkan adventure experience. Visit the AKT web site for information on additional tour offers.

explore

Adriatic Kayak Tours believes in the holistic approach to travel.

What better way to explore the unspoiled wonders of a coastal region than to paddle its coastline? Enjoy warm Mediterranean sunshine, crystal blue Adriatic waters, delicious regional cuisine, warm hospitality, quaint, but modern accommodations and the emotional and physical satisfaction of leaving the hustle and bustle of the mundane behind. Let AKT's experts show you the true pleasures of an active vacation.

*One of your own choosing.
On your own terms.
At your own pace.*

Explore for just a day or several days — it's up to you.

Travel for a day or for a week. It's your vacation, so you choose the itinerary that suits you best. But know, you'll always benefit from our vast knowledge of the area; its secret pathways, hidden treasures and rare finds. In this scenic landscape, you will actively participate in discovering the vast beauty of each location and its people. We offer a variety of trips featuring different islands, paddling distances and specialized activities. We invite you to see a detailed listing of all of our tour offerings beginning on page 8.

The experience is yours. Our tours allow you to uncover the special attributes of each island — with a little guidance from our local AKT experts of course.

Whether your interest is in learning first-hand about the islands' natural ecosystems, taking a morning stroll to a local farmer's market, visiting Dalmatia's myriad of historical landmarks, or simply enjoying kava (coffee) at a local café-bar, you are sure to end your day feeling enriched and invigorated.

Personalized tours for all types of persons.

For advanced kayakers or novices, we have trips tailored to your specific needs and goals. We provide all necessary equipment and introductory lessons in shallow, protected bays. We supply the latest equipment, accommodations, and itineraries to ensure the safety and comfort of all participants. See page 22 for further details on what we provide and what you'll need to enjoy your AKT experience to the fullest.

Provisions for experts.

We are pleased to outfit advanced kayakers and traveling groups who wish to explore the region on their own. We provide equipment rentals and other specialized services. Please contact us directly for rates and further details.

experience

Experience the beauty of the Adriatic coast with our knowledgeable guides.

Let AKT be your guide to unlocking the wonders of this magnificent region. Travel with us to discover the cultural textures, lush landscapes, unique marine life and rich history of Dubrovnik and the surrounding islands. AKT experts are from the area, in addition to being skilled kayakers and nature guides; they are well versed in local history, culture and folklore. Because tour groups are small, we offer a highly personalized experience tailored to each group's goals.

The AKT travel experience includes all the necessary equipment.

We use American Wilderness Systems, UK P&H, German Prijon, and Canadian Necky touring kayaks with rudders. We have both single and double kayaks as well as a range of beginner, intermediate, and advanced kayaks. Paddles, spray skirts, life vests, dry bags, water shoes, and snorkeling gear are standard issue.

On our cycling tours, we provide Trek 7.2 FX hybrid bikes with small handlebar bags. Rear racks and bike helmets are available.

Have the experience of a lifetime — no previous kayaking experience is necessary.

We keep group sizes small, so you and your fellow kayakers will get the individual attention necessary to ensure that your trip is a safe, comfortable and enriching adventure.

We accommodate trip levels from novice to advanced and offer many tour options. Whether it's a leisurely half-day paddle to the beaches and botanical gardens on the island of Lokrum or a week-long, island-hopping tour, know you will find your active tour a truly worthwhile experience.

Choose your ultimate vacation experience — pick your tour.

Our tour options are flexible, accommodating and fun. We encourage you to tailor a tour to your individual preferences, skill set and goals.

In the summer months the water temperature in Dalmatia reaches 27° C (81° F).

Day Tours

Half and full-day tours cater to vacationers who have already chosen Dubrovnik as their holiday destination and want an active and engaging way to experience the region. Kayak tours offer visitors the opportunity to venture to small islands away from Dubrovnik's tourist crowds. Hiking and biking in Konavle, a fertile valley wedged between the mountains and the sea, offers visitors a chance to enjoy Dalmatia's inland nature and to sample the region's local specialties.

Touring by kayak gives you an intimate view of Dalmatia. The islands are small and close together, so paddling by kayak is an ideal way see a great deal in a single day.

Day tour reservations can be made one to seven days in advance at AKT's office in Dubrovnik, online, by phone, or at your hotel concierge. Submit an online reservation request at www.adriatickayak-tours.com/day-tours. No deposit is required for reserving a day trip.

Book multiple day tours in Dubrovnik or combine kayak day tours with 1 to 3 day Montenegro Getaways (p. 21) to create a 2 to 7 day custom tour package.

Half-Day Tours

Zaton Bay and Beyond

Just 10 km north of Dubrovnik, Zaton Bay is a place of natural beauty and tranquility. The deep bay, surrounded by mountain ridges, offers kayakers natural protection from Dalmatia's coastal winds and calm safe paddling waters, free of Dubrovnik's busy motorboat traffic.

A paddle around the bay reveals an old stone mill fed by bubbling underground springs, aristocratic villas from Dubrovnik's Renaissance, and three small villages with seaside konobas (cafés) to stop for a cold drink. Beyond the bay paddlers are rewarded with views of the near-by Elafiti Islands and a rugged coastline of towering cliffs and caves. Paddle to a secluded cove set in steep coastal cliffs—a perfect spot to swim, snorkel, cliff-jump, and relax.

Easy, 8 km

Konavle Hike and Vineyard Tour

Choose from one of two scenic hikes in above Konavle Valley; climb a ridge on the Croatian-Bosnian border (spring and fall) for dramatic views of the surrounding countryside and sea, or hug the coastal cliff trail to discover one of the Adriatic's most beautiful and secluded beaches (summer). Both hikes include panoramic views of Montenegro's mountains, rural hilltop villages in southern Croatia and Bosnia, and the sea and islands.

After a short hike, visit a family owned vineyard and cellar for a light lunch of local prosciutto, cheese, figs, salad, and olive oil, accompanied by a wine making presentation and tasting. Varieties include Merlot, white Dubrovnik Malvasia, and Cabernet Sauvignon.

Easy, 7 km

Konavle Bike Tour

Cycle the seldom-traveled secondary roads through the beautiful vineyard region of Konavle, a green valley wedged between the mountains and the sea. Cycle along cliffs hanging above the Adriatic, where Croatia meets Montenegro, and past rural hilltop villages and cypress groves reminiscent of Tuscany. This southernmost corridor of Croatia features vistas of the mountains of Montenegro, the Bosnian countryside, and the sea and islands of southern Dalmatia.

3 Islands, 1 Day: Šipan, Ruda & Lopud

Ruda, a jewel of an uninhabited island, sits between Lopud and Šipan. This tour combines the rich history of Šipan, the sandy beaches of Lopud, and the beautiful cliffs, caves, and snorkeling spots of Ruda.

Easy, 10 km

Departures from Gruz ferry terminal, ferry transport included

Full-Day Tour daily 9:30 a.m.

400Kn / €52 / US$55 / £44

Pedal & Paddle: Lopud & Šipan Islands

Paddle from Lopud to Šipan Island, the most remote of the three inhabited Elafiti Islands. Abandon kayaks for bicycles and cycle past vineyards, aristocratic villas, churches, and lush landscape to Luka Šipanska, an unpretentious fishing village in a deep bay. Šipan Island has the richest history and is the least touched by tourism in the Elafiti Archipelago. After swimming, hiking, and lunch in Luka, return to Lopud by kayak.

Week-Long Tours

Our week-long tours give you a true taste of Adriatic island life.

As guests, you'll enjoy crystal clear seas, plenty of sunshine, and a rich cultural heritage. You'll paddle by medieval walled cities and uninhabited islands. You'll cycle past Renaissance villas set in Tuscan-like landscapes and hike trails scented with wild lavender and rosemary. Active vacationers find the laid-back atmosphere and warm climate truly satisfying.

Our 2017 season features a broader range of activities in Croatia and Montenegro in addition to our classic weeklong and short break kayak tours. Tour extensions include one to three day Montenegro Getaways (p. 21) and single day add-ons, like stand up paddle boarding and hiking & cycling the vineyards and rural villages of Konavle (p. 8-9). Our weeklong Best of Balkans Tour (p. 16) features three distinct regions, Croatia's Adriatic coast and islands, coastal Montenegro's Bay of Kotor, and northern Montenegro's mountainous Durmitor National Park and Tara River canyon. 2017 offers a greater range of activities, settings, and cultural exposure in multiple Balkan countries.

While sea kayaking is our primary focus, we have incorporated additional activities, like hiking and biking, on all week-long tours. Cultural exposure is a key component of AKT tours and is built into all itineraries, whether it be hiking to a hilltop monastery or eating a traditional meal at a local restaurant-winery.

Island Hopping: The Elafiti Archipelago

Explore the Elafiti Archipelago on our most popular week-long tour. Its relaxed pace makes it perfect for families. We begin with a 40-minute ferry ride from Dubrovnik to Lopud Island. Situated in the middle of the three inhabited Elafiti Islands, Lopud is the perfect site for kayak touring the Elafiti Islands and for the tour's home base. You'll stay in a quaint stone guest house in Lopud's only town. You'll enjoy picturesque scenery and delicious local cuisine prepared at Lili's, a private restaurant overlooking the bay.

Days are spent "hopping" from island to island, as the three inhabited islands are very small and close together. Paddling distances are relaxed (about 15 km per day), leaving plenty of time to experience natural and cultural treasures. The region boasts some of the most fantastic beaches in Dalmatia. The islands are covered with pine, cypress, fig, citrus, olive, palm, and magnolia trees. Fresh lavender, rosemary, oregano, and basil add a soothing fragrance to the air.

Evenings feature delightful meals with samplings of tasty local wines and beers. Guests may play beach volleyball, tennis, picigin (similar to hackysack), or simply sit back and relax.

Paddle Dalmatia: Elafiti and Beyond

Enjoy the serenity, charm, and beauty of the Pelješac Peninsula, the outermost Elafiti Islands, and the Dalmatian coast. On this week-long tour, you'll paddle from Ston's meandering hilltop city walls to Dubrovnik, one of the world's best-preserved medieval walled cities.

This tour features longer paddling distances than the Island Hopping Tour (page 10-11) with three nights of camping under the stars. View the majestic mountains of the Pelješac Peninsula as you climb Ston's 14th century walls, snorkel and swim in crystal bays on the outer, uninhabited Elafiti Islands, explore seaside caves or jump from their cliffs, and dine on fresh mussels and oysters from Mali Ston.

Travel southward from the Pelješac Peninsula, through the eight islands that form the Elafiti Archipelago, and finish on the coast near Dubrovnik. You'll spend three nights at private campgrounds near the sea, and four nights in private guest house accommodations.

Except for picnic lunches, meals are served in local restaurants and cafés.

Local lore and fantastic food coupled with stunning vistas make for an unforgettable travel experience. As always, there is time to explore, enjoy, and relax alone or with the group.

Note: Please pack lightly and be prepared to paddle a kayak loaded with your personal gear and camping equipment. Dry bags and tents are provided. Suitcases may be stored at the AKT office in Dubrovnik during your kayak tour.

Pedal and Paddle Mljet: Flexible and Luxurious

Our most flexible and luxurious tour package makes its base on Mljet, the legendary island where Homer's Odysseus spent seven years on his epic journey home from the Trojan War. Today, visitors are drawn to this densely forested island's extraordinary beauty and tranquility.

Largely uninhabited, almost one-third of the island has been designated a national park, protecting Mljet from the influx of tourism that characterizes much of Croatia. A park hallmark is its two inland saltwater lakes, one of which is home to a 12th century Benedictine Monastery that is the island's symbol. The park has a network of hiking and biking trails covering the entire northwestern tip of the island.

We spend three nights in a guest house in the small village of Kozarica and three nights in Hotel Odisij, the island's only hotel. This full-service hotel offers a range of dining options, as well as satellite television, Internet access, beach and lounge areas, windsurfing, sailing, diving, and cultural excursions.

Daily tour activities include paddling in protected water to nearby islands, leisurely hikes around the inland lakes, and challenging hill climbs on bicycles.* Tour highlights include your final day of kayaking — you will paddle from the open sea, through the narrow channel opening in the cliff walls, and into the island's inland lakes — and your hike to the legendary Odysseus cave to swim and snorkel.

Whatever unique path or paddle your group chooses to take each day, it will be an enriching and revitalizing experience. If it's peace and tranquility you seek, plus a little pampering, come to Mljet.

Daily kayaking, biking, and hiking routes and distances are determined by the group and the weather.*

Best of Balkans: Croatia and Montenegro

Our two-country Best of Balkans Tour brings together the best kayaking in the Adriatic Sea and the best of the region's mountains and rivers. Although Croatia and Montenegro share a common Adriatic coastline, the islands end at Croatia's southern border with Montenegro. Croatia's 4000 km. of spectacular coastline are littered with roughly 1185 islands, a sea kayaker's dream. What tiny Montenegro lacks in Adriatic coast and islands, it makes up for in spectacular mountain scenery, deep river-cut canyons, and the fjord-like Bay of Kotor.

Experience the best of both worlds—Croatia's sea and Montenegro's mountains. Paddle sea kayaks in Croatia's deep blue sea, hopping from island to island. Sleep in a stone guesthouse on a quaint island without roads or cars. Feast on local seafood and rich Mediterranean cuisine. Jump into the warm sea without regard for the water temperature.

A leisurely transition to Montenegro includes a visit to the UNESCO walled city of Kotor and a mountain hike for panoramic views of the Bay of Kotor. White water raft the cold, green waters of the spectacular Tara River Canyon, second in scope in the world to the USA's Grand Canyon. Sleep in wooden cabins at a rustic riverside camp. Enjoy hardy mountain meals around a roaring bonfire. Take in the star-studded night sky and crisp alpine air.

It's the best of the Balkans packed into one week—kayak Croatia's open sea and Elafiti islands, visit 3 UNESCO designated world heritage sites: Dubrovnik, Kotor, and Durmitor Park, and raft Europe's longest and deepest river gorge.

* Accommodation in Dubrovnik

Montenegro

Independent again since 2006, this tiny country boasts Swiss-like mountains, alpine lakes and river cut canyons to rival Colorado, the largest fiord in southern Europe, and a stunning Adriatic coastline. Let AKT help you explore the natural beauty and warm hospitality of this emerging destination.

The week-long “Mountains and Sea Tour” combines the best of Montenegro’s coast and its inland mountains. Sea kayak in the Bay of Kotor and enjoy mountain activities in the northern interior. Paddle to two UNESCO World Heritage sea-side villages. Raft the Tara River – Europe’s longest and deepest gorge. The drive from coast to inland peaks is an unforgettable experience.

1–3 day “Mountain Break Getaways” are excursions from Dubrovnik to Montenegro’s mountains. White water raft the Tara River Canyon; hike and bike the alpine trails of Durmitor National Park. Enjoy outdoor meals around a campfire with nearby mountain streams. Stay in rustic log cabins with bunk beds and modern bathrooms.

Mountains and Sea Tour

Enjoy sea level kayaking in the Bay of Kotor. Massive mountain slopes rise abruptly from the sea. The coastline is dotted with historic villages and two UNESCO World Heritage sites – the medieval walled city of Kotor and picturesque Perast. Paddle to every nook and cranny in the fiord from home base, a restored seaside villa in Lepetane at the bay’s mid-point. Explore WWII submarine tunnels in the bay’s cliffs, postcard perfect small church islands near Perast, and waterfalls that spill into the bay near Risan. Gaze up at Kotor’s walls while paddling to sea side restaurants serving local wine and the day’s catch.

The transition from Adriatic coastal life to majestic mountain is an adventure in itself. Switch-backed roads and stone tunnels zip you to the mountains. Visit a gleaming white cave monastery set in a sheer cliff wall. Reach a riverside log cabin campground, gateway to Durmitor National Park, and enjoy the crisp mountain air and a hearty meal around an open campfire.

Mountain Break Getaways

Tara Rafting Day Trip 8 AM – 8 PM

Leave Dubrovnik and the Adriatic coast via southern Bosina & Hercegovia for the rugged mountains of northern Montenegro. The Tara River Canyon, a breathtaking canyon of steep limestone cliffs with cascading waterfalls, is Europe's longest and deepest gorge. White water raft an 18 km stretch of the Tara River, surrounded by pristine natural beauty unscarred by human intervention. The 3.5 hour drive from Dubrovnik is an adventure in itself.

What To Expect

Packing

The southern Dalmatian climate is moderate and warm in the spring and fall. The summer months are hot and dry.

Paddlers Daily paddling gear during the summer months is a swimsuit, Teva-style sandals, sunglasses, and sun protection. A lightweight polypropylene or fleece layer and a paddling or rain jacket should be included on early spring and late fall tours.

Campers Pack a sleeping bag, ground pad, and towel(s). You can also rent these items from AKT. Tents are provided by AKT.

Cyclists Pack a helmet, bike shorts, and gloves. Helmets are available from AKT upon request.

Hikers Pack a warm wool or fleece layer for Montenegro's mountains. Pack a sturdy pair of sneakers or walking shoes, or lightweight hiking boots.

For evenings Attire is generally casual. Pack shorts, lightweight pants, T-shirt, skirt, sundress, sandals, and a sweater or light jacket in spring and fall. Breathable fabrics, like cotton or linen, are recommended during the hottest months of July and August.

Luggage transport and storage Backpacks and suitcases are transported to the island by ferry and stored in your guest house or hotel room during your tour. AKT provides dry bags for your daily belongings (clothes, towel, camera, wallet) for dry storage in the kayak's bulkhead. Please note on page 12 the Paddle Dalmatia Tour requires kayakers to pack and carry their personal belongings.

Accommodations

Guest houses Accommodations feature privately owned guest houses in small villages on the islands. Houses are chosen for their local character and convenient locations. Rooms are simple, comfortable, and clean, with private bathroom, bed linens, towels, and refrigerators. Many rooms have kitchens, but none have phones, TV's, or Internet access. Rooms are double occupancy; single rooms may be requested, however a guarantee is subject to a single supplement fee.

Hotels Hotels are full service with dining, bar, lounge, Internet access and satellite television. Applies to Pedal and Paddle Mljet tour.

Camping Paddle Dalmatia campgrounds are registered auto camps with access to the sea. Camping nights in Croatia are sleeping bags in mountaineering tents. Campgrounds provide shared indoor bathroom facilities. Camping nights in Montenegro are enclosed log cabins, bunkrooms and private rooms. Bathroom facilities are located nearby in a separate cabin.

Getting Around

Guest houses and campsites are chosen for their convenient locations. There are no cars on many of the smaller islands; they are connected to the mainland by regular ferry service. Bicycles are used for both touring and personal transport on the larger islands.

Food and Drink

Food is one of the highlights of our trips! The cuisine is Croatian Mediterranean and features fresh seafood, Dalmatian hams and cheeses, garden-grown fruits and vegetables, and superb Croatian beer and wine. Meals are long and relaxed. Breakfast is family style at your guest house or hotel. Lunch is either a sit-down restaurant meal or a picnic lunch while touring. Dinners are pre-arranged in private homes or restaurants chosen for their ambiance and fresh, high-quality food—the perfect way to end an active day.

Families with Children

Children ages 8 and up are always welcome when accompanied by a parent or guardian.
