

Guy Hudson, M.D., MBA, FAAP

Chief Executive Officer
Swedish Health Services

Guy Hudson, M.D., MBA, FAAP, is the chief executive officer for Swedish Health Services. In this role, he oversees the strategic direction and operations of the organization. He partners with key leaders to ensure that Swedish upholds its Culture of Safety, delivers the highest-quality care to its patients, and provides a respectful workplace that values the contributions of every caregiver. His steady, open leadership exemplifies an unwavering commitment to the Swedish mission.

During his tenure at Swedish, Dr. Hudson has served in various leadership positions across the organization. For nearly a decade, he led outreach and programs that transformed Swedish pediatric services. He successfully unified physicians throughout the organization, and brought together caregivers and administrators. He has been involved in a number of initiatives that have directly influenced Swedish's leadership perspective, operational workflow, caregiver engagement and patient care. Through his dedicated work with the Pediatrics enterprise, he developed a deep understanding of primary care, the emerging population health movement, and the complexities of the acute care environment.

In December 2016, Dr. Hudson was named chief of Physician Services for Western Washington, focusing on medical group operations in the areas of provider engagement, patient satisfaction, and financial, operational and quality performance.

Previously, Dr. Hudson served as Swedish Medical Group's chief medical officer. He proved to be an enthusiastic champion of quality, value and patient experience. He is a strong advocate for fiscal stewardship and was instrumental in charting the strategic direction of Swedish Medical Group in a challenging and rapidly changing health care industry.

Dr. Hudson came to Swedish as a pediatric urologic surgeon in late 2007 from an academic practice at Oregon Health and Science University. He completed a fellowship at the University of California-San Diego and a residency at the Oregon Health and Science University.

Dr. Hudson has been recognized for multiple years as one of Seattle's and Portland's Top Doctors, and he received the Patient's Choice Award Compassionate Doctor Recognition from 2011 to 2014. He has also been active with international care groups, including providing surgical care to children in Africa and serving as a Guatemala service representative with Providence Health International.