

Think your phone is safe in 2018? Think again.

How often do you talk about sensitive information on your smartphone?

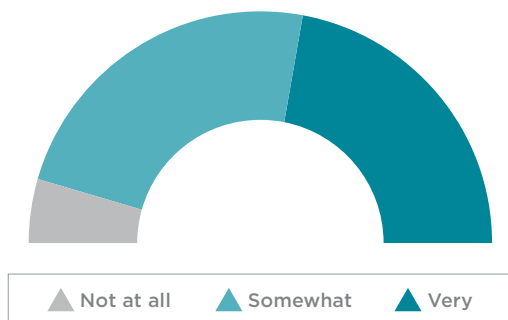

4 in 10

Four in ten are aware that their phone is not safe in airplane mode - the same result as 2017.

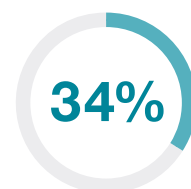

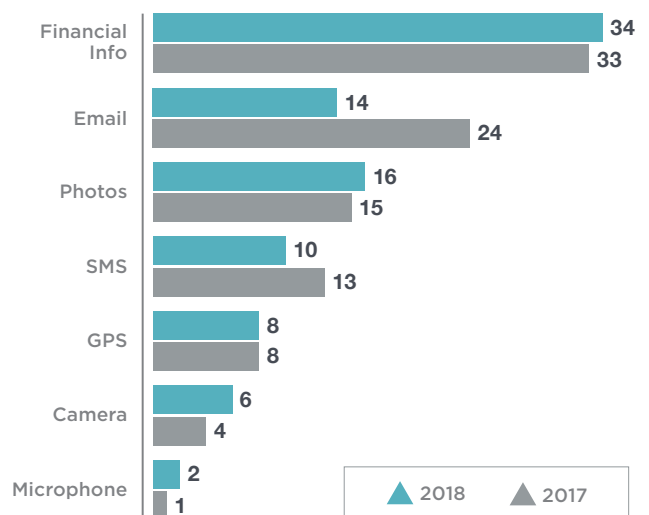

How concerned are you about the future of your personal digital privacy?

Over 90% are concerned about digital privacy.

What is your biggest concern if your phone were hacked?

People are still most concerned about financial information.

34% believe that a smartphone is at the highest risk of being hacked among all connected devices - second place just behind PCs (36%).

