Mark "Chooch" Jewell Joins Due Diligence Works, Inc. as a Senior Product Analyst.

Montclair, NJ , March 28, 2019 (Newswire.com) - Due Diligence Works, Inc. (DDW) announces the addition of Mark "Chooch" Jewell to the DDW Team as a Senior Product Analyst with a focus on Hedge Funds, UITs, Mutual Funds and ETFs.

"We are excited to add Chooch to our DDW Team to help serve our growing list of clients in the U.S. and Canada. His experience working with Independent Broker-Dealers and a broad array of products made Chooch the perfect fit for our team," announced Mike Freeman, President and Co-Founder of DDW.

Chooch Jewell brings 13 years of experience in product research and due diligence, most recently at National Planning Holdings (NPH), an independent broker-dealer subsidiary of Jackson National Life, recently acquired by LPL Financial. Chooch has been recognized for his thought leadership and in-depth reviews of Reg-Ds, 1031 Exchanges, ETFs, SMAs, and Alternative Investments.

"I am one of those rare individuals who love reading an offering memorandum or a prospectus and getting into the nitty gritty of a product. That's why I'm looking forward to sharing what I do with the broad client base that DDW has attracted."

– Chooch Jewell, Senior Product Analyst

Due Diligence Works, Inc. supports RIAs and Broker Dealers to provide:

- Broker-Dealers and RIAs meet Product Research and Due Diligence needs. Regulations and client-centric strategies have made DDW services not only a best practice, but a must in the industry.
- DDW researches thousands of products and recommends the best ones for firms, advisors, and clients. Their clients tell them, It just makes sense and why would they want to do this alone?

Who uses DDW services? Product Managers, Due Diligence, OSJs, Sales Support and Advisors — all in a variable cost and conflict fee model that can reduce cost, improve quality, and stand the test of regulatory scrutiny.
