Re: Lourdes University & Learner's Edge Graduate Courses--Professional Development Courses for Teachers

To Whom It May Concern:

The purpose of this letter is to verify that the courses offered in cooperation with Learner's Edge, Inc. are designed specifically as graduate level continuing education courses. They are intended for professional development purposes to help educators stay current in their fields, meet certification needs, and/or achieve salary advancement goals. Individuals should verify with their certification/licensing boards that these courses at the graduate level will meet their individual professional development needs prior to registering.

Even though LEI courses are not a part of any Lourdes University degree program, they are considered degree-eligible credits, and students may petition to include the credits in a degree program. Acceptance would be based upon the specific degree program and subject to Program Director approval. Degree-eligibility at other institutions is at the sole discretion of that institution.

Thank you for your interest in taking graduate level continuing education courses from Lourdes University.

Sincerely,
