RE: Gannon University/Learners Edge graduate courses

DATE: March 1, 2018

The purpose of this letter is to verify that the courses offered via our partnership with Learners Edge (LE), are designed specifically for graduate level continuing education purposes to help educators stay current in their field and meet certification needs.

A bachelor's degree is a prerequisite for registration. LE courses are transcribed as graduate courses by Gannon University and are critically evaluated by our education department.

Up to Six (6) credits of LE courses can be applied to the Masters of Education in Curriculum and Instruction degree at Gannon University. Learner's Edge classes will not be allowed for elective credit for any other degree program at Gannon University. The academic adviser and Director of Graduate Education must agree that the course is relevant to the Curriculum & Instruction program.

Course completion is documented with a letter grade and posted in semester graduate credits on an official college transcript.

Gannon University is accredited by The Middle States Commission on Higher Education

Thank you for your interest in taking graduate-level education courses from Gannon University.
