Construction news and trends, plus a little light-heartedness

Spring 2002

Saying Goodbye Is Hard To Do

A lot can happen in a month. For example, on December 14, Lacy Construction bid a happy retirement to four outstanding individuals with 142 years combined employment with the company. Approximately 40 family members, friends and co-workers recognized Jerry Sundermeier, Ivan Stueven, Norm Bennett and Leonard Ward at a party held in their honor.

Talk about experience! Jerry Sundermeier has been a skilled carpenter for Lacy since 1961, Ivan Stueven a project superintendent since 1963, Norm Bennett ran heavy equipment since 1966, and Leonard Ward has been working on projects since 1975.

each of the men with a three-day Caribbean cruise for two. We all offer our best wishes to Jerry, Ivan, Norm and Leonard. Thanks for helping make Lacy Construction what it is today.

Not more than four weeks later, on January 11, we relocated our offices to a new location in Grand Island, Nebraska. With 55 years at the same place, we were bound to grow out of it sooner or later. With the move, we more than doubled our shop and yard area, and the office space has more room for expansion when it is needed.

Please stop by and visit us at our new location—3356 W. Old Hwy. 30, Grand Island, Nebraska.
