

Entech Hires Additional Sales Personnel; Firm Continues to Grow Steadily

Fort Myers, FL, Jan. 11, 2017—Entech, an IT managed service provider (MSP) based in southwest Florida, recently hired Jordan Azis and Mark Delpopolo as outside sales representatives for the business development team. Azis, who will be working out of the Fort Myers office, started with the firm in late December 2016. Delpopolo, who started in early January 2017, will be working from the Bradenton office.

Azis, who has a diverse background in both outside sales and account management, has worked for such firms as Ingersoll Rand (www.ingersollrand.com) and Trane (www.trane.com). He has a Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial and Systems Engineering from the University of Florida and is a resident of Fort Myers.

Delpopolo has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science and Government from Princeton University, a Master of Arts in International Relations from Syracuse University and a law degree from Widener University School of Law in Wilmington, Delaware. Prior to joining Entech, Delpopolo was an account manager for Vology in Clearwater, FL (IT hardware and services) and owned his own publishing/advertising business. A resident of Odessa, FL, he is married and has two daughters.
