PURPOSE: Students and Teachers gather in a fun, non-pressured venue that allows new and returning students to bond – both within respective grade levels and as a school. To achieve this goal, students and staff participate in outdoor activities, class competitions, talent show, evenings around the campfire, experiencing “the Big Swing,” and many other activities on the entire campus of beautiful Eagle Fern Camp.

Additionally, this camp gathering provides a wonderful opportunity to invite God to set the spiritual tone for the year. Each night, the group members gather for a chapel service that includes uplifting worship music, a special speaker, and a time to debrief via “cabin talks.” Time is allocated for personal devotions, group prayer, and lots of conversation.

This intentional time is supported and highly enhanced by our wonderful parent volunteers who give their time in preparing wholesome meals in the Eagle Fern Camp kitchen. Daily, the group gathers in the Dining Hall for meals.

NEEDED: Drivers ~ to and from Eagle Fern Camp
Cooks ~ For all 3 days at Camp (accommodations provided)
(1 Head Cook to supervise other volunteer cooking staff and organize meetings, menus, shopping, etc.)

2018 Camp at Eagle Fern Packing List

We desire that camp be a meaningful time of community-building and tone-setting for the year. With this in mind, please remember to consult the CSLA dress code as listed in the Parent/Student Handbook as you pack for camp. PE apparel will be accepted during class competitions and activities. We will be participating in many fun activities (indoor and outdoor) so please don't bring your best clothing.

What to Bring:

- Sleeping bag and pillow (or sheets and blankets)
- Bible, journal and pen
- Change of clothes for 3 days (it's not a fashion show so travel light)
- Warmer clothes for evenings
- Plastic bag for dirty clothes (with tie)
- 1-2 Bath towels
- Toiletries
- Tennis shoes for games/activities
- Flashlight

Optional:

- Odds and Ends for skit night/talent show
- Bug repellent
- Sunscreen
- One-piece bathing suit (there may or may not be water in the river)

Cell Phones/Electronic devices: Cell phones and other electronic devices will not be allowed to be used at camp. If not required for communication with parents during the return trip, they are better left at home.

NOTE: The camp is considered an extension of our campus and all school policies as outlined in the Parent/Student handbook are enforced. This includes pranking or curfew violations. Consequences for severe violations could include immediate request for pick-up by a parent.
