

C.S. Lewis Middle School Outdoor School 2019

What: Three days and two nights of fun, learning, food, challenges and excitement! Includes: Visiting and learning about Mt. St. Helens, exploring Ape Cave (the longest lava tube in the lower US!) high/low ropes course and climbing wall, crazy games, singing and devotional times, organized recreation and more! This year we will also have two special optional activities of horseback riding and paintball during our afternoon free time on Thursday.

When: 7:30 a.m., Wednesday, September 11 to 3:00 p.m. Friday, September 13.

Where: Royal Ridges Retreat, an awesome facility north of Battle Ground, WA

With: Middle School students and teachers, parent sponsors and the RRR staff

Basic Cost: $185 per student. This covers lodging in a cabin, excellent meals and all group activities for three days.

Optional Costs: Thursday afternoon extra options for free time: Horseback riding-$25 OR Paintball-$30 (you will only have time for one!) There will be games and other activities if you don't want to do one of these.

More: List of what to bring and an itinerary will be available soon.

I agree to obey all outdoor school rules, to follow directions of supervising adults, to have a good attitude and to represent C.S. Lewis Academy well at Royal Ridges, the Mt. St. Helen's visitor centers, on our hikes and on the road. I understand that any major violation of rules, or repeated minor violations, may result in parents being requested to come to Royal Ridges Retreat to take me home early, with no refund.
