

Professional Services by MidChes

Plug and play.
Move it over there.
Simple statements.
Big challenges.

Whether it's your first video management system installation or the installation of a security desk, our Professional Services team is available to supplement your security installation and maintenance resources.

Your project is important, no matter the size.

Partners leverage this service to supplement their technology experts or expedite an installation schedule with our trained and certified team.

- Video management system initial installation assistance
- System health checks and updates/upgrades
- Head-end hardware deployment
- Command center furniture installation
- Video and security system troubleshooting

Support@MidChes.com
(410) 612-9640

Professional services are fee based. Travel expenses such as lodging and airfare are not included.