WELCOME TO CAMP

EventCamp is a gathering for restaurant and hotel sales and event professionals focused on one big goal: to learn about innovations that help them increase sales, stay on top of trends, work smarter using technology and data, and grow their business. As with every incredible camp experience, we have some exciting things planned for EventCamp:

- One full day of exciting talks from experienced sales and marketing professionals
- Intimate setting for 200+ (per location) event and sales managers that represent some of the finest restaurants and venues around the world
- Multiple opportunities to network with attendees and discuss your product
