Is This the Best Certification Track for You?

Deployment Leader Certification

The demand for change management is growing exponentially and with this, the demand for change management leaders experienced in the practices and dedicated to the discipline.

More than just a business practice, when change management is deeply ingrained into an organization and consistently applied to all projects and initiatives, it becomes a core competency, a competitive differentiator and a cultural value within the organization.

The Prosci Advanced Deployment Leader Certification will allow you to:

- Continue your professional path with the leading organization in change management
- Further your knowledge, equipping you with the skills to plan for and successfully drive enterprise change management efforts
- Set yourself apart from others within the discipline
- Market yourself as a change management deployment leader, with a certification that acknowledges your ability to orchestrate, maneuver and lead an organization into change management maturity

Is the Deployment Leader Track the Best Track for You?

Prosci offer three highly tailored Advanced Certifications Tracks. If you are answering yes to the following questions, then the Advanced Deployment Track is the most suited to your needs and career aspirations.

Do you:

- Work for an organization that is actively pursuing enterprise change capability?
- Have extensive experience in applying change management methodology to organizational projects?
- Already demonstrate the benefits of change management through successful projects?
- Want to help build organization-wide change management capability?

Enrollment Requirements:

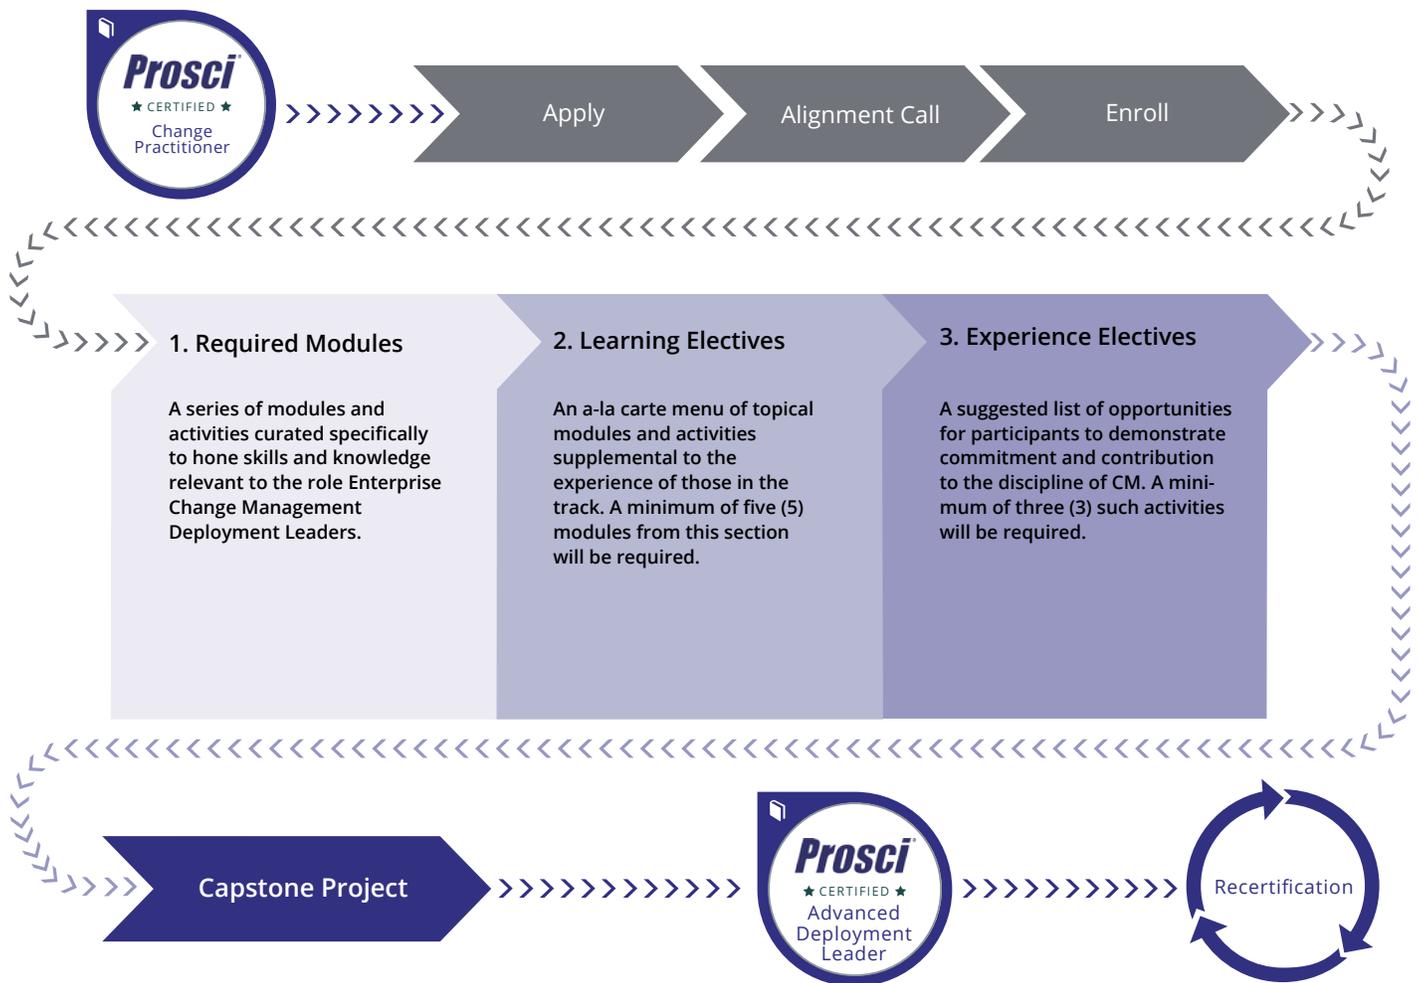

In order to embark upon this track, you will need:

- Prosci Change Management Certification
- Experience applying the Prosci methodology
- Advanced Deployment Leader Application
- Manager or supervisor reference (see application form). This reference will need to demonstrate support for Enterprise Change Management efforts within your organization
- Alignment phone call with Prosci

Structure of Deployment Leader Track

The Advanced Deployment Leader Certification consists of a series of modules comprised of either in-person or online education components. You will apply what you learned in each module on a project and submit module outputs for evaluation. Throughout your journey to your Certification, you will have ongoing support from a personal, dedicated Prosci advisor, who will coach you, review your work and provide robust feedback on each assignment.

Advanced Certification: Deployment Leader Track

Investment

The initial enrollment fee with the Prosci Advanced Deployment Leader Certification Track includes the cost of the independent tools associated with the learning modules, support from dedicated teams assigned to assist you and module evaluations.

Final investment can vary based on the venue packages associated with the in-person training and if additional in-person training is chosen as part of your elective modules. Please review the following pricing structure and contact Prosci with any questions.

Advanced Instructor
Enrollment fee:	$3,000
Additional training fees:	$889 + venue package (if applicable)

Recertification Requirements

To maintain the advanced certification, Prosci Certified Advanced Deployment Leaders must demonstrate that they have continued engagement in the discipline of change management every two years. This can consist of continued application of change management, coaching other change management professionals, and a series of other activities. This recertification will be tracked between you and your Prosci advisor.

Frequently Asked Questions

Do I need to complete the Advanced Certification Tracks within a certain time period?

Yes. From the enrollment date, you will receive 18 months of access to your learning modules and support. An extension can be requested if circumstances necessitate more time.

How do I access my course modules?

The Advanced Deployment Leader Certification Track will be accessible through the Prosci Portal. The modules and the associated tools needed to complete each track will be activated upon enrollment.

Will I have access to support throughout the duration of the track?

Yes. The Advanced Deployment Leader Certification Track has a dedicated support team ready to assist you as you progress. You will have unlimited access to your Prosci advisor.

If I leave my organization during the track can I continue at another organization?

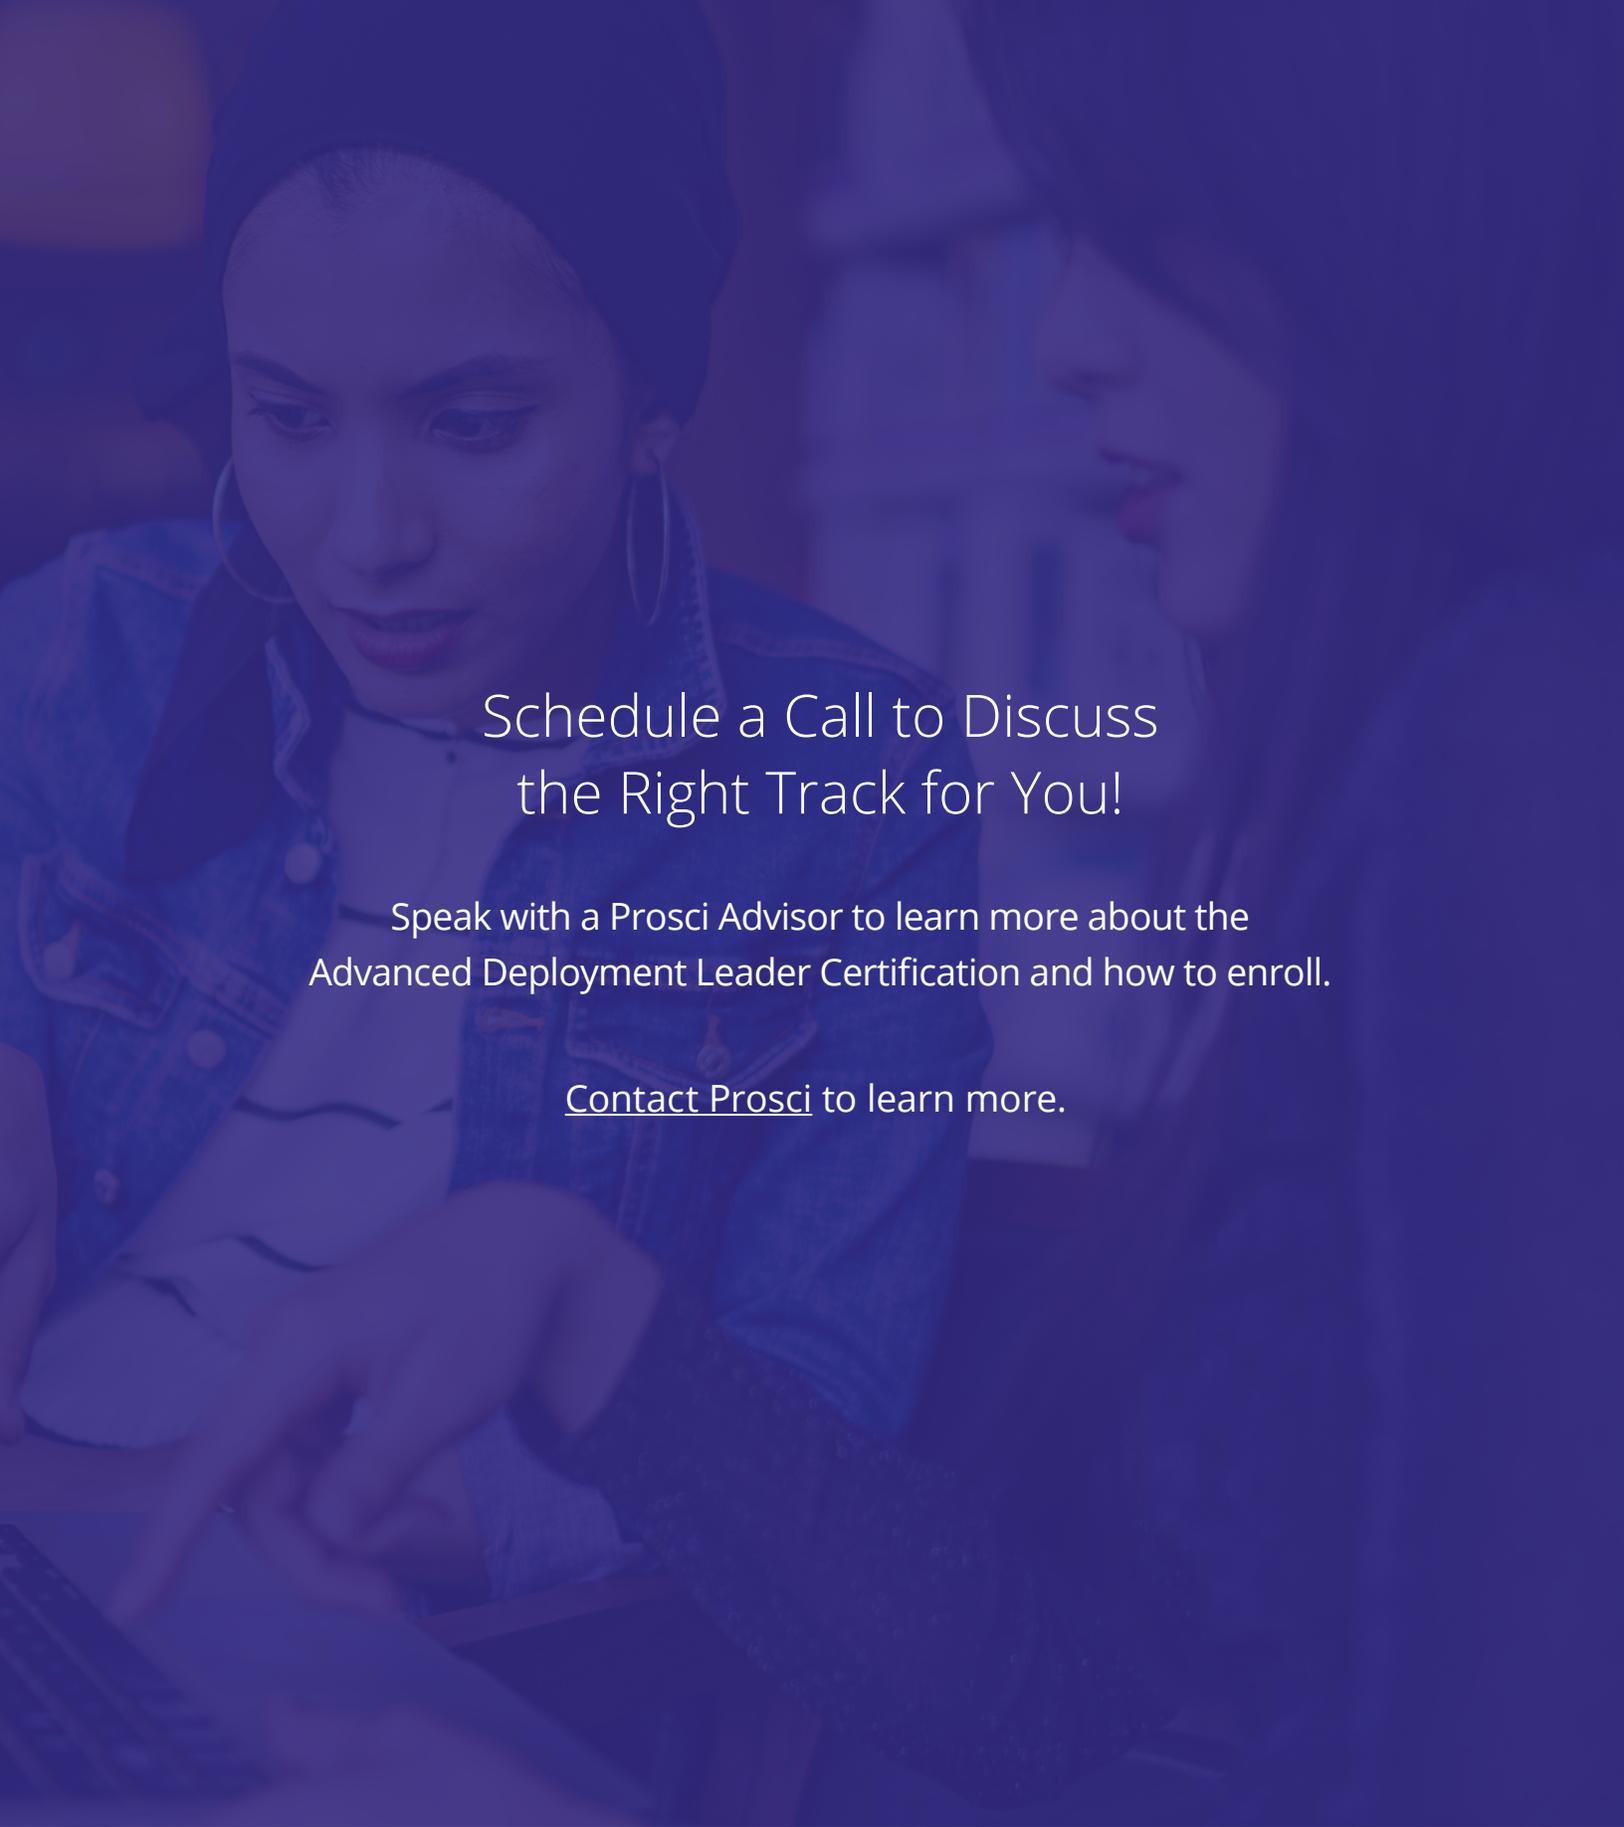

For the Advanced Deployment Leader, it is necessary to demonstrate meaningful progression toward achieving enterprise change management capability. For this reason it is ideal to remain with the same organization. If, however, you do switch organizations, please contact us. We will discuss the options and the best way for you to continue to complete your track and certification.

Upon completion of the Advanced Deployment Leader Certification, what will I be able to refer to myself as?

You will be able to market yourself as a Prosci Certified Advanced Deployment Leader.

How will I track my progress through the Advanced Deployment Leader Track?

You will work closely with a support advisor at Prosci. On completion of each module you will submit work for evaluation and receive direct feedback from your advisor. These evaluations will serve as evidence of a completed module as none of your submissions will be saved by your advisor.
