

AccuQuilt Celebrates 10th Anniversary with Limited-Edition GO!® Die Release

(OMAHA, NE) April 24, 2018—AccuQuilt, a U.S. based company that specializes in manufacturing premiere fabric cutting machines, is celebrating its 10-Year Anniversary. To kick off their celebration, the company is bringing back three of the most popular original applique GO!® fabric cutting dies. The GO! Anniversary Die Collection features GO! Leaping Frog, GO! Airplanes and GO! Elephants. These appliqué dies are a must-have for quilters of all skill level and are available for a limited time.

“This is just the beginning of our year-long anniversary celebration,” said director of marketing, Lynn Gibney, “we are planning many more product releases the remainder of the year.” These three dies come in a commemorative navy-blue tray and can cut up to four layers of cotton fabric with fusible web. Plus, each has a FREE embroidery download available at accuquilt.com. These appliqués are the perfect way to easily make any quilt fun and whimsical. Or use them to create decorative gifts, wearables, home décor and more.

AccuQuilt’s signature dealers will also offer the GO! Limited-Edition 10th Anniversary Die Collection at their quilt stores. Each die is compatible with the GO! Baby, GO! and GO! Big fabric cutting systems which the dealers would be happy to demonstrate. For more information on AccuQuilt and the latest product releases, visit accuquilt.com.
