

Latest AccuQuilt Gallery Showcases Quilts Created for Veterans by Local 4-H Members

Nebraskans from 8 to 18 years old use weekend workshops to quilt for war vets.

(OMAHA, NE) June 13, 2018— AccuQuilt, a U.S. based company that specializes in manufacturing premiere fabric cutting machines, is proud to present its latest quilt gallery: Quilts of Valor from Douglas-Sarpy County 4-H. This collection of quilts is a product of a 5-day workshop that was supported by AccuQuilt, along with the Omaha Quilts of Valor chapter and Omaha Modern Quilt Guild.

“We were excited for the opportunity to support this collaboration between Quilts of Valor and 4-H,” said AccuQuilt’s director of marketing, Dawn Drazdys. “It is an honor to be able to exhibit these patriotic quilts that were made for our nation’s heroes.”

The 4-H Quilting Workshops, which ran on Saturdays from Feb. 3 through April 7, were made possible by Quilts of Valor’s Under Our Wings program. This program aims to get young people involved in quilting and teach them the value of serving their community.

Workshop attendees came from all levels of quilting experience, from never touching a sewing machine to working part-time in local quilt shops. Each individual had the full-time attention of a volunteer to guide them through cutting, sewing, piecing and any challenges they may have encountered while making their quilt.

After leaving the AccuQuilt gallery in July, these quilts will go to the County Fair and State Fair (pending placement in the County Fair) and then to their deserving veterans. When presented, these quilts will join more than 200 Quilts of Valor that have been gifted in Nebraska in 2018.

AccuQuilt’s gallery is located in their headquarters at 8843 South 137th Circle, Omaha, Nebraska, 68138. The gallery is open Monday through Friday, from 10am to 2pm, and closed on weekends and major holidays. Admission is free for all visitors. AccuQuilt welcomes group or individual tours.
