

Invest in your TrialMaster[®] success with

We empower our CARE-Qualified customers with the knowledge and resources to become expert study builders in our leading EDC software so you can:

Reduce operational expenses

Streamline data management activities

Reduce study development timelines

The EDC CARE[™] qualification program will ensure a sound mastery of the OmniComm applications, spanning the scope of functionality that places OmniComm at the forefront of today's EDC solutions

Our CARE-Qualified customers are not only proficient in TrialMaster[®], but also have a solid operational foundation to support long-term growth while maintaining high-quality trial database builds

OMNICOMM'S EDC CARE[™] PROGRAM AREAS

Organizational Support

We help customers appoint the right people to the right roles to enable quality work from start to finish

Operational Readiness

Gain insight from our 20+ years of experience to develop more efficient processes and procedures that will help you support and sustain continued growth

Technical Expertise

Receive expert training and knowledge from experienced professionals to promote optimal use of OmniComm technologies

Become an expert study builder in the preferred EDC platform of investigator sites.

For more information, contact our training department: edccare@omnicomm.com