We Take the Guesswork Out of Hiring

CMP takes much of the guesswork out of hiring through validated and efficient assessment. We utilize an empirical process to evaluate candidates' abilities, capacity, leadership temperament, and cultural compatibility to inform selection, on-boarding and identify potential over time.

Did You Know?

- As much as 80% of employee turnover can be attributed to poor hiring decisions (HBR).
- 50% of all new hourly hires quit or are fired in the first 6 months (Humetrics). That same failure rate exists for new managers and executives at 18 months (HBR and CLC, respectively).
- Assessments are proven effective at reducing employee turnover and improving performance. An Aberdeen Group study sites that businesses that use pre-employment assessments experience 39% lower turnover among high-potential employees and are 24% more likely to have employees who exceed performance goals.
