

At Acast, we believe in using technology, data and metrics to elevate audio distribution, discovery and commercialization, for all.

An estimated 29% of Americans have listened to a podcast in the last month.*

How old are today's podcast listeners?

Current podcast listeners tend to be younger than radio listeners, with 2/3rds of new listeners aged 16-34.

How often do we listen?*

27% of podcast listeners listen once a week

35% listen 2 to 4 times a week

17% listen 5 times a week or more

Why do we listen?

31% of podcast listeners say the reason they listen to podcasts is to learn something new. A quarter of those surveyed say they are listening to podcasts in the last 6 months.

When do we listen?

Most podcast listening happens between noon and 10 p.m. with the largest spike occurring between 4 p.m. and 7 p.m.**

How long do we listen?

On average, podcast fans spend more than 3½ hours per week listening to podcasts, typically split across two listening sessions. By comparison, other listening media, such as audiobooks and music, attract between 4 to 5 hours of weekly listen time vs. TV at an average of 12.3 hours.

What do we listen to?

Comedy remains the most listened to podcast genre, followed by news & politics.

How do we find a new podcast?

1 in 3 discover new shows through social media, followed by personal recommendations (27%)

More than 3 out of 4 who listened to a podcast in the past 3 months have recommended a podcast to someone else, re-told a story or recommended a product, site or service they heard about on a podcast.

* Past 1 month |  Past 3 months