

Data & Applications Solutions listing service

The Data and Application solutions framework will be applicable for suppliers looking to sell software and services to the public sector. In style, this framework is a mix of both G-Cloud and DOS and has an estimated value of £1.2 billion for software and £432 million for services.

The government will be looking for suppliers of on-premise and cloud based software. The framework will be divided into five groups and 14 Lots

Listing your software and/or service on government frameworks can be a time and resource heavy process, particularly for SMEs. Our Data & Applications Solutions listing service can help you save costs by taking the bulk of the work away.

Our listing service includes:

- Supplier registration
- All background and compliance questions answered
- Submission prep and webinar
- Compliant in-house developed submission templates
- Bespoke application timeline
- Regular application reviews and suggestions for improvement
- Unlimited email support
- A dedicated Account Manager during the application process