

Pre-College Intensive: Leadership for Social Change

summer.tufts.edu/high-school/programs/leadership-social-change

Join Tufts' Tisch College of Civic Life for an engaging two-week summer program created for those who want to develop their leadership skills while making a difference in their local communities and the larger world. The program equips students with the skills and civic knowledge to build connections, work collaboratively, and emerge as change agents who can inspire others.

Through direct service work, collaborations with Tufts professors, guest lectures from field experts, and group discussions, students will expand their understanding of social inequity and inequality. Using this knowledge, they will work in small groups to develop action plans to address specific issues facing their home communities. They will leave the program well prepared to leverage their passion for social change into making a meaningful impact.

PROGRAM OUTCOMES

- Inspiration and preparation to bring change and be active, engaged civic leaders
- Individual action plans to address a pressing issue in each student's home community
- Team presentation and e-portfolio of each student's work
- Direct service opportunities in the community
- A community of peers who value civic engagement and community leadership
- Leadership development and networking opportunities
- Tufts college credit for one course (pass/fail)
