

Cardinal Newman: Man of Letters

presented by: Professor M. Katherine Tillman, Ph.D. Professor Emerita , University of Notre Dame

12 Lectures (5 CDs) Including Electronic Study Guide

This collection of talks is for those who want to learn about Newman from a true expert; it is also for believers who want to know more about the content of their own Christian faith—as viewed through the prism of a saintly life.

You will be invigorated by Prof. Tillman’s in-depth coverage of a range of increasingly relevant subjects, such as: the place of the laity, freedom of conscience and the relationship between faith and reason.

The course complements (without repeating) Fr. Philip Bochanski’s more biographical series called “The Life and Legacy of Cardinal Newman.”

Take advantage of Prof. Tillman’s lifelong engagement with Newman’s work, and ground your faith in eloquent conviction today. You will enjoy these extraordinary lectures.

Topic Titles

- Newman’s Epic Journey in the Mediterranean: “Realizing” the Classical Authors
- Newman’s Solitary Trek into Sicily: The Descent into Hades
- Making Tracts: The Oxford Movement (1833-1845)
- Deep in History: How Doctrine Develops
- The Church of the Fathers: The Beau Ideal of Christianity
- The “Uselessness” of Liberal Education
- Catholicity and the Academy
- Consulting the Faithful about Doctrine Too
- "A Toast to the Pope but to Conscience First"
- “Like Two Wings”: Reason and Faith
- Works of Imagination: Hymns and Tales and a Dying Man’s Dream
- Themes of Spirituality: “Heart Speaks to Heart”