

America Reads Work-Study Program

Information

What is the America Reads Work-Study program?

The America Reads Work-Study program is different from other work-study positions because you will be working off campus. If you are accepted into the program you will be working at one of four elementary schools.

The schools that you would be placed at are:

Pennell Elementary School

Drexel Neumann Academy

Aston Elementary School

St. Francis de Sales School

Main Street School

To see if you are eligible for Work-Study contact the Office of Financial Assistance at finaid@neumann.edu or call 610-558-5521.

What is expected of me if I am in the America Reads Work-Study program?

If you are accepted as an work-study student you are expected to: keep in contact with your NU supervisor, provide appropriate contact information (i.e. phone and e-mail), work no more than 10 hours per work, submit to background checks and volunteer screening, provide your own transportation and submit your timesheet to Sister Mary Ann in Room 312 BMB.

What do I need to do if I am selected as an America Reads Work-Study Tutor?

If you are selected as a work-study tutor you will need to attend a mandatory orientation session with Sister Peggy Egan in Room 139.

Who is my supervisor at NU?

Your supervisor at NU is Sister Mary Ann McCarthy. You can contact her at: mccarthy@neumann.edu 610-358-4270 or stop by the Neumann Institute for Franciscan Studies Office in Room 312 BMB.

Who are my supervisors at the elementary school?

At the elementary schools you will be supervised by the principal or the person he/she delegates who will assist you in setting your schedule and provide you with direction.
