

Benjamin S. Bolas, Associate, Dilworth Paxon, LLP

Benjamin S. Bolas, Esq. is an associate in the Philadelphia-based law firm of Dilworth Paxon LLP. He represents individuals, small and large businesses and charities in a broad range of tax and business areas. Mr. Bolas previously worked as a student attorney at the Villanova Tax Clinic, where he received a fellowship to continue his work in the Tax Clinic while he completed his LL.M. in taxation. His prior work experience also includes working as an Internal Audit Intern for Erie County Agricultural Society and working as a Summer Associate at Kavinoky Cook, a business law firm located in his hometown of Buffalo, New York.

Mr. Bolas graduated cum laude from Canisius College where he majored in accounting and finance. He then went on Villanova University School of Law where graduated cum laude and received a Dean's Merit Scholarship, Dorothy Day Award for Pro Bono Service, the Federal Tax Clinic Award for outstanding contributions to the Tax Clinic, and the Herman J. Obert Award for attaining the highest grade in the class of Business Organizations.