

Center for Leadership

Delaware County Partnership for Public Safety

“Planning and Preparing for an Active Shooter”

Neumann University

May 19, 2016

- 8:00 to 9:00am Networking / Continental Breakfast
- 9:00 to 9:30am Welcome – Dr. Mirenda, Neumann University President
- Introductions- Danielle McNichol, Director, Center for Leadership and General Counsel, Neumann University
 - Introduction of Partners – Delaware County Partnership for Public Safety, County officials, AlliedBarton Representatives
 - Mario Civera, Jr. – Delaware County Council Chair
 - Trish McFarland – President, Delaware County Chamber
 - Jack Whelan, Esq. – Delaware County District Attorney
- 9:30 to 10:30am Practical Preparedness – Rich Cordivari, Allied Barton, Preparing for Workplace Violence – Strategies Can Use to Plan and Prepare for an Event
- Situations, Preparedness, Training
 - Indications of Violence
- 10:30 to 11:00am Responding – Timothy Boyce, Delaware County District Attorney’s Office
- Lieutenant Christopher Flanagan, Radnor Township Police Department
 - Officer Brian Coleman, Haverford Township Police Department
 - Things You Should Understand to Survive an Active Shooter – How to React in a Time of Crisis
 - Strategies for Survival, Awareness
 - What Civilians Can Do
 - Implementing the Run – Hide – Fight Response
- 11:00 to 12:00pm Panel – Danielle McNichol, Neumann University - Facilitator
- Delaware County District Attorney, Jack Whelan, Esq.
 - ABSS Representative - Charles Bohnenberger, AlliedBarton, Vice President, Government Services
 - Trooper Timothy Green, Pennsylvania State Police
 - Delaware County Chamber of Commerce, Trish McFarland
- 12:00pm Adjourn

