

Mrs. Shari A. Williams, Community Outreach Manager, Marcellus Shale Coalition

Shari A. Williams serves as the Marcellus Shale Coalition's Community Outreach Manager, and covers South Eastern Pennsylvania's 5 county regions. In this capacity her responsibilities entail strategic community and government outreach which is pertinent to the development and use of natural gas in Pennsylvania. She manages and implements robust state and local community outreach campaigns in order to educate consumers, key public officials, business and civic leaders, academia, special interest groups, and stakeholders, on the economic, environmental, and energy security benefits of clean-burning natural gas. Additionally, Shari is the staff liaison for the Marcellus Shale Coalition's Natural Gas Use committee, and chairs the Marcellus Shale Coalition's South Eastern Pennsylvania Regional Task Force.

Shari is a member of the American Association of Blacks in Energy (AABE) a national organization of energy professionals, on which she chairs the legislative committee for the local chapter. Shari is on the committee for Greater Philadelphia's Energy Action Team, (GPEAT) and most recently was appointed by the Governor to serve on the Wolf Transition team for the Department of Environmental Protection. Shari also serves on the Board of Trustees for Special Olympics Philadelphia and the Marian Anderson Awards Board.

Shari holds a Bachelor's of Arts Degree in Organizational Management from Eastern University and is a professional commercial and print model and entrepreneur.
