Please present a copy of your sales receipt at the time of the memorial purchase. The credit amount will be for the cost of the cross excluding the lettering and sales tax.*

Please remember your wooden cross is a temporary marker and will weather in the elements. We suggest that after every use, you bring it indoors, sand and re-varnish it to retain its quality. If not cared for, the cross can become warped and weather damaged. Milano Monuments is not responsible for any weather damage to wooden crosses after use.

OUR REPUTATION OF FAMILY VALUES – AND FAMILY SERVICE

Working with families for 50 years, we've observed and experienced the positive impact of memorialization on the healing process. Our business is driven by one emotion – love. It's something we can all use a little more of, particularly in times of sorrow. We express that love in our work, to the families we serve, and our involvement in the community. One such expression is The Lost Hearts Foundation, an organization established by Maria Milano's children in her memory to financially assist young people who have lost parents.
