While we've given thousands of men and women the gift of parenthood through IVF, this procedure isn't for everybody. Now's your chance to find out if IVF is right for your family... without any obligation or cost.

Did you know that IVF success rates don't tell the full story?

"A comparison of clinic success rates is not meaningful, because patient characteristics and treatment approaches vary from clinic to clinic." – American Society of Reproductive Medicine

At our seminar, we'll carefully explain how we determine our success rates and provide the tools you need to choose the right IVF clinic.

With fertility therapy, time is everything. Call 888-422-9139 or email afsanai@kofinas.org now to reserve your seat... and your family's future. You can also visit us at KofinasFertility.com.
