Marine Log's Tugs & Barges
Conference in Philadelphia, PA
May 10-11, 2018

Marine Log's Tugs & Barges Conference & Expo is the premier forum for the coastal and inland tug and barge industry in North America, designed to enhance networking and the exchange of information.

Now in its 15th year, Marine Log's Tugs & Barges Conference & Expo has established itself as the premier forum for the coastal and inland tug and barge industry in North America. The conference draws together some of the most notable vessel owners and operators, shipbuilders, naval architects and marine engineers, regulators, and suppliers to discuss practical, real world solutions to industry challenges.

Register now to stay at the Le Méridien Philadelphia, in Philadelphia, PA by visiting the website.

Come see why bargeowners are specifying the MarineLine[®] cargo tank coating system that outperforms stainless steel and all other coatings, providing the highest chemical resistance available on the market today.

MarineLINE[®]

MarineLine[®] has an ultra-smooth, glossy, low energy surface that reduces venting time, uses less cleaning chemicals, and less fuel during cleaning. Barge owners save time and money.
