High Performance Recruitment Marketing Platform

One Platform Works With Your ATS to Attract, Source, Engage, and Delight Candidates

Talemetry's Recruitment Marketing Platform integrates with your iCIMS ATS to help you get more of the best candidates by executing modern recruiting strategies.

Plus, Talemetry gives you unprecedented visibility into your organization's recruiting performance. This enables you to implement any mix of broad or targeted recruiting strategies and drive significant efficiencies for your recruiting process. It's flexible enough to allow you to implement individual modules, or get the full value of an enterprise-proven recruitment marketing and sourcing platform with all the modules.

The Talemetry Recruitment Marketing Platform gives you:

Best-in-class advanced CRM. Talemetry provides federated search of internal applicants and external resume databases and combines them into a centralized talent pool for sourcing, segmenting, tracking, pipelining, and engaging individuals or mass lists of potential candidates.

Full profile talent networks. Talemetry helps you engage passive candidates with easy opt-in talent networks that leverage Talemetry's industry-leading resume and social profile extraction for quick access to fully searchable, data-rich candidate profiles.

Fully automated job distribution. Talemetry can auto-distribute jobs to the appropriate channels based on job family, location, and more, removing the need for recruiters to review and initiate every job ad distribution.

Flexible mobile/social career sites. Talemetry powers multi-brand, multilingual global career sites as well as targeted micro sites for campaigns, events, or key job families – all from a single easy-edit content platform. All sites are fully responsive and social and mobile enabled.

Mobile/social job applications. Talemetry provides any number of flexible job application workflows for specialized job families and custom, multi-step application processes.

Multi-language resume and social profile extraction. Talemetry's multilingual resume and social profile extraction increases conversion rates and enhances candidate experience.

Comprehensive integrated analytics. Talemetry's platform analytics, combined with iCIMS ATS integration, provides source-to-hire analytics for every recruiting channel. Fully drill down in each category to track performance at every stage of the candidate acquisition process – even track results by recruiter for training and optimization of your entire recruiting organization.

Flexible Integrations with iCIMS Talent Acquisition Platform

Prebuilt two-way integration ensures open jobs feeds are up-to-date for sourcing, job distribution, career site listing, and job applications. Plus ATS candidates are synced so you can search and engage candidates from all sources from a single interface. Talemetry is an approved iCIMS partner with hundreds of customers.

TALEMETRY'S DEEP ATS INTEGRATION AND ENTERPRISE SCALABILITY MAKE IT THE LEADING RECRUITMENT MARKETING PLATFORM

From its enterprise-grade security to a fully modern architecture and user interface to cutting edge Auto-Search automatic sourcing capability, Talemetry was designed from the ground up to meet the needs of the largest global enterprises.
