Quotes to Remember

*"The clock is running.
Make the most of today.
Time waits for no man.
Yesterday is history.
Tomorrow is a mystery.
Today is a gift. That's why it is called the present."
-Alice Morse Earle*

*"If you're doing your best you won't have any time to worry about failure."
-H. Jackson Brown Jr.*

Please Welcome Catrina!

Day Services' is excited to welcome Catrina B. to the Goodwill team. Catrina began her role as a Recreation Assistant in late July and came to Goodwill with years of Special Education training from the Brown Deer, South Milwaukee, and Wauwatosa School Districts. Catrina is working on her Bachelor of Arts degree in Human Services and is on track to graduate in December. Catrina looks forward to doing many cooking and craft projects with the Day Service participants. In her free time, Catrina loves to read 19th century historical fiction.

The Red Hat Society's New Queen and Princess

On August 4, the Day Services' Red Hat Society hosted its annual "Crowning of the Queen and Princess" celebration. This event also honored the participant members who have excelled at volunteering and demonstrating their leadership skills over the past year. This year's crowns went to the new queen, Mary S., and the new princess, Lisa I. The honorary princess was Pauline V. Congratulations to all!

Creative Writing

September is the month in which football, and specifically the Green Bay Packers, kick off their season. From this point on, we can't wait for each Sunday to arrive; the thought of Aaron Rodgers throwing TD passes, Jordy Nelson catching TD passes, and Clay Matthews sacking the opposing team's QB brings us much joy this time of year. We have supported the Packers for many years, win or lose. We remember when Brett Favre, Mike Holmgren, and Reggie White started helping the team win, and have heard about the legends of Curly Lambeau and Vince Lombardi from long ago; that winning tradition still continues today. Lambeau Field is the place to be on Autumn Sundays, and hopefully Super Bowl 52 is the place the Packers will end up this February 4th. Go Pack Go!

Goodwill participant, Hannah F., painted a colorful Wisconsin Badger masterpiece. Hannah painted the badger using an intense palette of red, white and black. The animal is seen grazing in a field of emerald green grass with a stormy blue skyline. After completing the project, Hannah smiled from ear to ear because she knew she created something special. It would only make sense this badger's color is primarily red, as most in Wisconsin know that Badger football season is right around the corner! Go Bucky Go!
