

Christina Ho is the Deputy Assistant Secretary (DAS) for Accounting Policy and Financial Transparency. Her office is responsible for leading the development, implementation, and enforcement of accounting policies governing federal financial activities and promoting innovation in federal financial management. She successfully led the government-wide implementation of the Digital Accountability & Transparency Act of 2014 (DATA Act) with the goal to track nearly $4 trillion dollars in annual spending and link data from budget, accounting, procurement and financial assistance into one common standard. In addition, she represents the Department of Treasury on the Federal Accounting Standards Advisory Board (FASAB). Prior to her appointment as DAS, Christina held leadership positions with Bureau of the Fiscal Service at Treasury and was a senior manager at Deloitte & Touche, LLP. Christina is a certified public accountant (CPA) and a certified information system auditor (CISA).