Course Admission Information Set

Double Degree: Bachelor of Arts (Audio Production) & Bachelor of Applied Business (Entertainment Management)

This double degree is ideal for students who are interested in both the technical and business sides of the entertainment industry. Students will undertake fundamental audio units such as live sound, recording, producing and post production, and then pair it with key business and management subjects such as event management, marketing strategy, copyright management, international business strategy, publishing, and project management. Throughout the course, students will:

- Learn and perfect recording studio techniques
- Create professional-quality recordings
- Manage live audio production to a professional standard
- Work on industry projects alongside musicians and entertainment managers
- Develop specialist recording and post-production skills
- Manage, promote and produce live events
- Gain knowledge and experience in artist and tour management
- Access career pathways through our industry partnerships and placements

The course consists of forty-one core units, three electives, and includes a 60-hour work placement. A full-time load of study is four units per trimester. It is possible to complete the double degree in a minimum of nine trimesters or a maximum of eighteen trimesters.

The double degree is delivered at the Wellington Street Campus and is recognised under the Australian Qualifications Framework.

Purpose & Scope

This policy establishes the principles and processes by which Australia College of the Arts Pty Limited (Collarts) will assess domestic student applications to the Bachelor of Applied Business (Entertainment Management). It should be read in conjunction with the Admissions Policy for Domestic Students.

International students seeking admission to a course of study at Collarts should refer to the college Admissions Policy for International Students.

COLLARTS

Important Dates

Collarts has three teaching periods each year called trimesters. Each trimester has a Census Date.

Students can change their study load by adding or discontinuing a unit, without academic or financial penalty, up to the Census Date for that respective trimester. The Census Date is also the last day a student can defer, suspend or withdraw their enrolment without financial penalty. Any changes to enrolment after Census Date will result in a student being liable for their tuition fees for that trimester. Census Dates cannot be changed or extended. Important Academic Dates, including trimester Commencement Date and respective Census Dates can be found on the Collarts' website.

Admission Criteria

Students will be accepted into the Bachelor of Arts (Audio Production) and Bachelor of Applied Business (Entertainment Management) double degree at Collarts where they meet the admission criteria. For interstate, International Baccalaureate (IB) graduates, and domestic overseas applicants, standard admission criteria apply.

A. Applicants with Recent Secondary Education (within the past two years)

Year 12 Applicants

Australian Year 12 Applicants must have completed an Australian Senior Secondary Certificate (Year 12) or equivalent within the last two years. Applicants must present evidence of completion of an Australian Senior Secondary Certificate (or equivalent). There is no minimum ATAR requirement.

Additional Criteria

Interview

All applicants are required to attend a short informal interview to discuss their experience in the creative industry and area of interest. The interview is intended to assess the applicant's aptitude and understanding of their chosen course of study and the requirements of tertiary study.

Personal Statement

All applicants are required to submit a written statement of 300 words outlining their reasons for undertaking this course of study, and how their study, experience and skills will support their potential to succeed in their studies.

B. Applicants with Vocational Education & Training (VET) Study

VET Applicants

VET Applicants must have completed a relevant VET qualification at Certificate IV or higher within the last two years. Applicants must present evidence of their VET qualification(s) and academic results.

Additional Criteria

Interview

All applicants are required to attend a short informal interview to discuss their experience in the creative industry and area of interest. The interview is intended to assess the applicant's aptitude and understanding of their chosen course of study and the requirements of tertiary study.

Personal Statement

COLLARTS

All applicants are required to submit a written statement of 300 words outlining their reasons for undertaking this course of study, and how their study, experience and skills will support their potential to succeed in their studies.

Credit Transfer and Recognition of Prior Learning

There are currently no credit transfer arrangements with other VET providers, however VET Applicants may be eligible for unit exemption in recognition of prior learning programs which could result in course credit via the grade of 'Advanced Standing' (AS). For more information on how to make an application for course credit in recognition of prior learning, please refer to the college Course Credit Policy.

C. Applicants with Higher Education Study

Higher Education Applicants

Higher Education Applicants must have undertaken a relevant tertiary qualification within the last two years. Applicants must present evidence of their qualification(s) and academic results.

Additional Criteria

Interview

All applicants are required to attend a short informal interview to discuss their experience in the creative industry and area of interest. The interview is intended to assess the applicant's aptitude and understanding of their chosen course of study and the requirements of tertiary study.

Personal Statement

All applicants are required to submit a written statement of 300 words outlining their reasons for undertaking this course of study, and how their study, experience and skills will support their potential to succeed in their studies.

Credit Transfer

Graduates of the Diploma of Applied Business (Entertainment Management) qualification from Collarts, who have passed all units, may gain entry by way of credit transfer into the Bachelor of Applied Business (Entertainment Management).

Applicants should submit an 'Application for Course Credit' with the Office of the Registrar during the last trimester of their Diploma study at Collarts but no later than five working days before the trimester's Census Day. An 'Application for Course Credit' can be downloaded from the FAQs section of the college website and the MyCollarts Student Portal at <http://mycollarts.edu.au/login/index.php>. For more information on how to make an application for internal articulation, please refer to the college Course Credit Policy.

Recognition of Prior Learning

Higher Education Applicants may be eligible for unit exemption in recognition of prior learning completed at other providers. This could result in course credit via the grade of 'Advanced Standing' (AS).

Recognition of Prior Learning is an assessment process used to determine the extent to which a student has achieved the required learning outcomes of a unit of study. Where course credit is granted, the student is exempt from attending that particular unit in order to complete their qualification. The maximum number of units for which exemption may be granted is 50% of the total credit points for the course.

An 'Application for Course Credit' can be downloaded from the Enrolment Resources section of the college website. Applications should be submitted at the time of enrolment (or application to study) where possible. Failing this, applications should be lodged with the Office of the Registrar ten days prior to the trimester's Commencement Date, but no later than five working days before the trimester's Census Day. D. Applicants with Work & Life Experience

Work/Life Experience Applicants

Applicants who left senior secondary education more than two years prior to their application, and have not undertaken VET or higher education study since, may gain entry into a course of study at Collarts based on professional or work experience (two years) and/or any non-formal courses undertaken in preparation for tertiary education or that are relevant to the intended course of study.

To be considered for admission based on work and life experience, applicants must be 20 years old at 1 February in the year they intend to commence study at Collarts.

Evidence of Work/Life Experience must be provided in an interview. Applicants should outline their reasons for undertaking the intended course of study and addressing at least three of the following admission criteria:

- Academic Background
- Employment Background
- Knowledge and Skills
- Personal Qualities
- Equity Access or Other Special Considerations (if applicable)

Where possible applications should present evidence of items addressing the admission criteria above. For more information on the types of criteria you may address in your supporting statement, please refer to the college Supporting Statement Guidelines.

Additional Criteria

For more information on making an application for course credit in recognition of prior learning, please refer to the college Course Credit Policy.

Additional Information

Indigenous Australian Entry Scheme

Collarts actively encourages applications from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. Collarts recognises that there is inequality in education opportunities for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. While there is no specific reduction in entry criteria, Collarts supports and encourages applications from within the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community.

COLLARTS

The Indigenous Australian Entry Scheme enables Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people to apply for entry to a course of study at Collarts based on previous study, work and life experience and/or any other transferable skills that support their potential to succeed in their studies.

Applicants must also provide 'Confirmation of Aboriginality or Torres Strait Islander Heritage' at the time of their application or at their interview (or audition).

Domestic Applicants with Overseas Qualifications

All overseas equivalent qualifications will be verified using the Australia Education International, National Office of Overseas Skills Recognition Database (Country Education Profiles Online known as CEP Online).

English Language Proficiency

All students are expected to have a reasonable level of English language proficiency to at least a VCE Study Score 30-34 Standard English achievement (or equivalent). Permanent residents, whose first language is not English, should be able to speak and write English at the minimum English Language Proficiency Scores as shown in Table 1 below:

6. Assessment

Completed applications are assessed against the relevant Admission Criteria as outlined in this policy and successful applicants are sent a formal Letter of Offer for a place at Collarts.

7. Letter of Offer

The Letter of Offer is a formal written agreement outlining the contractual arrangements between the student and Collarts that confirms the course of enrolment, duration, campus location, and course-related fees and identifies policies associated with the protection of their rights as a consumer.

Enrolment

Acceptance of Offer

The Letter of Offer requests that applicants carefully read through the document to ensure their personal and intended course of enrolment details are correct and that they understand the conditions of enrolment at Collarts. If the applicants have any questions or concerns, they are encouraged to make contact with the Recruitment Team to clarify before accepting their offer to study.

To formally accept their offered place, applicants are required complete, sign and return the Agreement Acceptance Declaration at Section D of the Letter of Offer.

Confirmation of Enrolment

On completion of the enrolment process, the Registrar will issue an Enrolment Confirmation with details of their Orientation Program. The Orientation Program is compulsory for all students to attend. It is held at the commencement of each trimester to welcome all new students and provide them with information to support their transition to tertiary studies.

Course Credit & Recognition of Prior Learning

Applicants from other providers may be eligible for unit exemption in recognition of prior learning from other providers. This could result in course credit via the grade of 'Advanced Standing' (AS).

Recognition of Prior Learning is an assessment process used to determine the extent to which a student has achieved the required learning outcomes of a unit of study. Where course credit is granted, the student is exempt from attending that particular unit in order to complete their qualification. The maximum number of units for which exemption may be granted is 50% of the total credit points for the course.

An 'Application for Course Credit' can be downloaded from the Enrolment Resources section of the college website. Applications should be submitted at the time of enrolment (or application to study) where possible. Failing this, applications should be lodged with the Office of the Registrar ten days prior to the trimester's Commencement Date, but no later than five working days before the trimester's Census Date.

For more information on how to make an application for course credit in recognition of prior learning, please refer to the college Course Credit Policy.

COLLARTS

Deferment

Where a student wishes to defer their enrolment and delay their commencement of study date, the student must lodge an 'Application to Defer the Commencement of Study' form outlining the reasons for the request. An 'Application to Defer the Commencement of Study' form can be provided by contacting the Office of the Registrar on 1300 818 777.

For more information on how to make an application to defer, please refer to the college Deferral, Suspension or Cancellation of Enrolment Policy.

Fees

The indicative tuition fees for each course of study at Collarts can be found at the 'Fees' tab for the respective course under the FAQs section of the college website.

Students must meet the liability for tuition fees by Census Date each trimester, having either:

- a) paid in full all tuition fees upfront
- b) paid part of their tuition fees upfront and deferred the balance through FEE-HELP assistance
- c) deferred their entire tuition fee liability through FEE-HELP assistance

FEE-HELP Loan Assistance

Domestic students, who do not wish to pay their tuition fees upfront, may have access to the Government FEE-HELP loan assistance plan to pay their fees. FEE-HELP is available to full-time and part-time domestic students enrolled in a course of study in at Collarts.

Students who are, or would be entitled to FEE-HELP assistance have until Census Date to submit a 'FEE-HELP Form' which can be obtained by contacting the Office of the Registrar on 1300 818 777. The 'FEE-HELP Information Booklet' and the 'FEE-HELP Student Brochure' provide additional information and can be downloaded from the college website.

For further information about the FEE-HELP Loan Scheme, please visit the FAQs section of our website.

Fee Refunds

The College fee refund policies outline the grounds by which a student may be eligible for a refund of course tuition fees. However, Collarts may, in its absolute discretion, grant a partial or full refund where they determine there are extenuating or compassionate circumstances. Each student acknowledges and agrees to the terms of the College refund policy when signing the Student Acceptance document contained in their Letter of Offer to study at Collarts.

If a student cancels (withdraws) or defers their enrolment they must do so before the relevant Census Date to avoid incurring academic and financial penalty. Refunds will not be made for trimester fees once the Census Date of that trimester has passed, unless there are deemed to be extenuating or compassionate circumstances.

For more information about tuition fee refunds and re-crediting a FEE-HELP balance, please refer to the Tuition Fee Refund Policy for Domestic Students and the Deferral, Suspension and Cancellation of Enrolment Policy. If you have any questions about tuition fee refunds or deferring your enrolment, please contact the Office of the Registrar on 1300 818 777.

Grievance & Appeals

All students or prospective students seeking to enrol in a course of study at Collarts are entitled to access the grievance procedures set out in the college Grievance & Appeals Policy for Non-Academic Matters, regardless of the campus location, their place of residence or the mode in which they intend to study. The policy establishes the principles and processes by which Collarts will investigate, hear and determine grievances to ensure a fair and equitable outcome with regard for college rules, the TEQSA Threshold Standards 2015, and the Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) Act 2000.
