Agricultural Aviation

A dedicated partner for aerial applicators.

For decades aerial applicators have played a critical role in high-yield agriculture, forestry and insect abatement. The aerial applicators are highly trained, dedicated professionals who have made a considerable investment in equipment and training. These professionals need an insurance provider who understands the unique requirements of their business.

We're here for the long haul.

Old Republic Aerospace, Inc. (ORAE) understands that our clients need more than just an insurance provider. Our clients require aviation professionals who can act as their insurance partner offering flexible underwriting, responsive customer service and top-quality claim management. As a dedicated agricultural aviation insurance specialist, we are aware of the current trends and distinct risks associated with aerial applicators. We know that every business is different so we take the time to match the right coverage to fit our clients' unique needs.

With Old Republic Aerospace, our clients get the expertise they'd expect from one of the most successful and stable insurance providers in the aviation industry, along with the dedication and personal attention of a partner.

Comprehensive coverage for our clients' current and emerging needs.

ORAE provides a full array of aircraft physical damage and liability coverages designed for aerial applicators operating piston or turbine powered aircraft, fixed-wing or rotor-wing.

Coverages can be tailored to meet our clients' individual requirements:

- Aircraft liability protection for aerial applicators up to $5 million
- Liability protection for chemical drift claims up to $500,000
- All risk aircraft physical damage coverage up to $1.5 million
- Aerial applicator premises liability coverage up to $5 million

In addition, we offer a new agricultural aviation policy form, the AG500, - a broad updated policy form for aerial applicator coverage. Specifically designed with aerial applicators in mind, our policy forms contain specialty coverage, including:

- Crops being treated coverage
- Adjacent fields coverage
- Picloram coverage
- Additional insured status for farmers / owners / growers
