Manufactured Products Liability

Comprehensive coverage for manufacturers of aircraft parts and components.

Protecting our clients and the consumer.

Aviation parts and components are manufactured all over the world. No matter what type of product, buyers expect them to operate correctly, be of acceptable quality and include proper instructions. However, products don't always meet those expectations or standards and can cause injury because of design defects, manufacturing defects, malfunction, misuse or incorrect installation.

With over 30 years of aviation insurance experience, ORAE understands the unique needs of aviation product manufacturers.

For manufacturers supplying component parts to the aerospace industry, aviation manufactured products liability insurance is an important consideration when evaluating potential exposures to its business. An aviation manufactured products liability policy protects the manufacturer against third-party legal liability arising from physical damage or bodily injury as a result of an alleged product failure or defect.
