A Christian’s School’s biblical role is to work in conjunction with the home to mold students to be Christlike. Of necessity, this involves the school’s understanding and belief of what qualities or characteristics exemplify a Christlike life. The school reserves the right, within its sole discretion, to refuse admission of an applicant or to discontinue enrollment of a student if the atmosphere or conduct within a particular home or the activities of the student are counter to or are in opposition to the biblical lifestyle the school teaches. This includes, but is not necessarily limited to, participating in, supporting, or condoning sexual immorality, homosexual activity, or bisexual activity; promoting such practices; or being unable to support the moral principles of the school. (See Leviticus 20:13 and Romans 1:27.)

Covenant Classical School admits students of any race, color, sex, and national or ethnic origin, to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, or national or ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, and athletic and other school-administered programs. Covenant Classical School does reserve the right to select students on the basis of academic performance, religious commitment, philosophical compatibility, and a willingness to cooperate with the Covenant Classical School administration and abide by its policies.

Parental Contract with Covenant Classical School

I, the undersigned, do hereby commit:

- that all of the information provided on this application is true to the best of my knowledge, and that I have not intentionally withheld or misrepresented any pertinent data.
- to fulfill my financial obligations to Covenant Classical School, specifically, I understand:
 - ▶ that I am responsible for the timely payment of the full annual tuition and other fees due Covenant Classical School even if my child is voluntarily withdrawn or expelled from school.
 - ▶ that in the event I decide to withdraw or not reenroll my child in Covenant Classical School, I will, for the school's benefit, inform the school office in writing of my reasons.
 - ▶ that I am responsible for damages to school property made by my child.
- to fully support and abide by all Covenant Classical School policies, including the School Uniform Policy. I affirm that I have read the Student-Parent Handbook.
- to support school personnel, programs and activities with prayer and communication, and, where possible, to serve as a volunteer in various capacities.
- to nurture habits of punctuality, thoroughness, neatness, honesty, resourcefulness, independent reading and study. I will also expect my child to complete all homework daily and to make sure all books and completed homework are returned to school the following day.
- to allow my child to be photographed or videotaped for public relations and/or training purposes.
- to direct any grievances I may have through the proper channels according to the principles outlined in chapter eighteen of the gospel of Matthew as summarized below:
 - ▶ all persons are to deal with the situation at its source. This usually means initially speaking privately with the person in a constructive and supportive attempt to get clarification or resolution.
 - ▶ if, after honest attempts have been made and clarification or resolution has not been satisfactorily reached, then the person proceeds to the next level of authority. This generally means speaking with the head of school. If satisfaction is not realized by this point, then the person proceeds to the CCS School Board by bringing the matter to the board's attention in writing.

I have read the above contract and agree to abide by it while my child is enrolled as a student at Covenant Classical School.
