

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 6, 2017

Contact: Cheryl Lightholder, Manager of Communications
Office: 414-847-4165 or Cell: 414-750-0603

MEDIA ALERT

ROLLING MEADOWS HIGH SCHOOL WINS
GOODWILL FALL HAUL CHALLENGE

Chicago Blackhawk Wingers Ryan Hartman and Nick Schmaltz will square off with students and teachers in a “Shoot the Puck” competition

What: Fall Haul, Goodwill’s popular donation challenge, had 260 participating high schools in metropolitan Chicago donating nearly 1.4 million items. Rolling Meadows High School won the overall challenge by donating over 114,500 items and will receive a visit from Chicago Blackhawk players Ryan Hartman and Nick Schmaltz on Tuesday, March 7. Second and third place winning schools, respectively, were Palatine High School; they donated 76,435 items, and St. Charles East High School donated 47,400 items. Each of these schools received a $500 gift card and plaque commemorating their extraordinary efforts.

When: Tuesday, March 7, 2017
12:45 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.

Where: Rolling Meadows High School
2901 Central Road
Rolling Meadows, IL 60008

Why: Goodwill Industries of Metropolitan Chicago is the largest Goodwill organization among 163 agencies in North America. Goodwill employs more people with disabilities than any other private-sector business in the area. In 2016, Goodwill provided services to nearly 65,000 men and women with disabilities and disadvantages and had 9,608 individuals enter employment. Visit www.goodwillchicago.com for more information about the organization.