

Being non-compliant can cause serious damage to your ~~h~~wealth

Do you feel your expenditure on non-sales related compliance activities is too high?

GDPR, AWR, Rights to Work, Gender Pay Gap, Conduct Regulation and sector specific compliance - there is a seemingly ever-expanding set of legislative compliance that, as a director of a recruitment business, you need to adhere to. Furthermore, the potential costs of non-compliance are astronomical and potentially a serious risk to your business with penalties ranging from significant fines, to criminal charges and even jail for some offences!

How Can We Support You?

Our compliance services will work with your existing policies to ensure that you have all of the workflows and reporting in place to allow your teams to comply with your relevant statutes, whether that is around candidate retention and deletion, SSP for temporary workers or even internal gender pay gap reporting.

We will work with you to utilise your current investment in front, middle and back office technologies to create an environment where the overhead of compliance is minimised, and your staff can concentrate on winning business.

How Do We Work?

Our compliance team will provide consultancy and development of:

- Workflows to ensure that your policies are being adhered to
- Reporting and exception reporting on policies
- Integration of data from different systems into a single compliance reporting portal
- Reduction of manual data entry

If compliance is an overhead in your business, please get in touch as we'd love to help you.
