BIRDS OF PREY

Eagle, Falcon, Owl-Birds of Prey, Nature 2018 Documentary

'Birds of prey' are birds that hunt and feed on other animals that are fairly large compared to themselves. They have adaptations that allow them to hunt down other animals for food.

Learn all about these different types of birds of prey in a short nature documentary by clicking the link below.

Bird Cams

There are birds of prey right here in Pittsburgh and you can watch them in real time! Thanks to the National Aviary and CSE Corporation, you can see what a Peregrine Falcon, a Bald Eagle, and its babies do every day. Look at these live nest cameras each day to see the babies grow!
