History

The Highland Park community raised about $120,000 to build a “super playground” in the park at Maple Grove. The distinctive Leathers & Associates design includes many elements suggested by the playground users: the children. Bob Leathers founded Leathers and Associates to build houses but ended up building playgrounds using design input and labor from the neighborhoods nearby. The whole process took about a year and a half, culminating in the actual construction of the playground by community volunteers in April, 1991

Highland Park Super Playground

Activities

Super Tag! Gather your friends and get ready to run. Whoever's "it" tries to tag and "freeze" everyone else. Your friends can unfreeze you. The game is over when you're all caught.

Climb a Tree! All around the Super Playground there are trees with low-lying branches that are perfect for hopping up into. Make sure you get permission, then have fun monkeying around!

Add-a-move! Try to copy a friend's path through the playground. Each time each of you adds another move. Whoever can go the longest without making a mistake wins!

The floor is LAVA! You can roam all over the superplayground, but don't touch the ground.. It's made of molten rock!
