

Ready, Set, LinkedIn: Summary Checklist

Having a great LinkedIn summary is important, because it is one of the first things people see when clicking your profile. This summary checklist will help you understand what needs to be covered in your LinkedIn summary.

- Your LinkedIn summary should be between 50-100 words.
- Start with a catchy hook so job recruiters want to read more about you.
- Turn your LinkedIn summary into your story.
- Explain your career aspirations within 1 to 2 sentences.
- Brag about your accomplishments.
- End with a Call to Action: "For more information, connect and send me a message."
