

Bloomfield
Christian School

In order to read The Great Books, a student needs to first read "good" books. Bloomfield Christian School has compiled a list of good books for your student's summer reading enjoyment.

Students entering Fifth Grade are required to read two hours per week throughout the summer. The reading selections listed in bold type are required reading selections. Students will complete the Grammar School Reading Log, which is due the first day of school.

Rising Fifth Grade

Required Summer Reading

Where the Red Fern Grows

Prince Caspian

The Swiss Family Robinson or Anne of Green Gables

Rawls

Lewis

Wyss or Montgomery

Poetry

Casey at the Bat

Everyman Anthology of Poetry for Children

Favorite Poems Old and New

Poetry for Young People

Thayer

sel. Avery

sel. Ferris

Dickinson

Book Titles

Across Five Aprils

Al Capone Does My Shirts

All Creatures Great and Small*

Animal Farm

Blood on the River: Jamestown 1607

Bridge to Terabithia

The Bronze Bow*

Bud, Not Buddy

Caddie Woodlawn

Calico Captive

Carry on Mr. Bowditch

Crispin: The Cross of Lead

Dragonwings

Eight Cousins

Gathering of Days, A

Freak the Mighty

Great Brain, The (series)

Hiding Place, The

Incredible Journey, The

Island of the Blue Dolphins

Hunt

Choldenko

Herriot

Orwell

Carbone

Paterson

Speare

Curtis

Brink

Speare

Latham

Avi

Yep

Alcott

Blos

Philbrick

Fitzgerald

Ten Boom

Burnford

O'Dell

Bloomfield
Christian School

In order to read The Great Books, a student needs to first read "good" books. Bloomfield Christian School has compiled a list of good books for your student's summer reading enjoyment.

Johnny Tremain*

The King's Fifth

The Last Battle

The Light Princess

Little Women

Number the Stars

Old Yeller

The Princess and the Goblin

Secret Garden

A Single Shard

Tom Sawyer

Twenty and Ten

Two Little Savages

The Voyage of the Dawn Treader*

Where the Red Fern Grows

White Fang

The Witch of Blackbird Pond*

Forbes

O'Dell

Lewis

MacDonald

Alcott

Lowry

Gipson

MacDonald

Burnett

Park

Twain

Bishop

Seton

Lewis

Rawls

London

Speare

* Book to be read during the school year.