

Emily Black Bremer – Partner

Emily Bremer is the owner of the insurance brokerage firm Bremer Conley, LLC. Bremer Conley is a boutique brokerage and consulting firm located in Clayton, Missouri. The firm specializes in health, disability and life insurance for employee benefit plans and individuals, and provides a consulting approach with a focus on strategic planning, communication and compliance. Prior to launching Bremer Conley, Emily ran Liggett, Black & Co., LLC, an independent insurance brokerage firm founded in 1996. Emily is licensed in Life and Health insurance in Missouri, Illinois and Colorado and in Property and Casualty insurance in Missouri. She earned a certification in Consumer Directed Health Plans in 2010 and a certification in Self-Funding Medical Plans in 2015 from the National Association of Health Underwriters (NAHU).

Emily is a member of NAHU and is a Past President of both the St. Louis and Missouri Chapter Boards of Directors. She is currently serving on the NAHU National Media Relations Committee and as the Region 6 Media Relations Chair. In 2015 Emily received a Distinguished Service Award from NAHU in recognition of her passion for the industry and years of service to the organization.

As part of her service with NAHU, Emily has also served on a regional broker and agent coalition with the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) and through her work with them met with Kevin Counihan, CEO of the federal marketplace for health insurance plans in 2015, and participated in the ACA SHOP Marketplace Launch Forum at the White House in 2014.

She has been featured on the Nine Network and is frequently sought out as a resource by, and quoted in, the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, St. Louis Post Dispatch, and multiple local radio stations as an expert on health insurance and health care reform. Emily graduated cum laude from Kenyon College in Ohio with a B.A. in History, and studied for a year at St. Andrews University in Scotland. She lives in Webster Groves, Missouri with her husband and daughter.
