4 CRUISE TRENDS

Which new ships are hitting the high seas in 2017? What exciting new amenities will you find on board? Which destinations are most in demand? Travel advisors named what's hot in cruise travel at this year's Virtuoso Travel Week.

22 WHAT FLOATS YOUR BOAT?

Today's cruise ships and styles offer something for everyone. Here, five Virtuoso cruise specialists look at the best staterooms, onboard diversions, and other features aboard their favorite vessels.

10 POSH PORT STAYS

Some of the world's most over-the-top hotel suites can be found in famed port cities. Extend your vacation before or after a cruise with one of these rock-star stays, including Beyoncé's favorite digs in Rio.

39 WHERE TO DROP ANCHOR

Some places deserve more than just a day in port. Overnight stays and pre-/post-cruise adventures include extra time for feeding koalas in Hobart, dining in Lyon's famous bouchons, and exploring Game of Thrones filming locations in Dubrovnik.

Sea the World

Whatever your style, wherever you want to go, whatever you like to do, your Virtuoso travel advisor can design a highly customized cruise vacation for you. All details will be taken care of, including your pre- and post-cruise adventures, saving you time. But best of all, you'll save money with the exclusive amenities and extraordinary Virtuoso Voyages shore events only available through your Virtuoso travel advisor. Now, get ready to set sail.

ABOVE: Experience the iconic majesty of Antarctica. OPPOSITE (clockwise): Oenophiles sampling local wines; nearly 30 medieval castle and fortress remains line the banks of the Rhine River; onboard waterparks rival those on land; discover Old Town Dubrovnik's famous monuments and friendly cafés.

Your Suite's no-host minibar makes entertaining a breeze.

Holland America Line

EUROPE & ALASKA

After 70 years in Alaska, Holland America Line continues to find ways of making a Great Land adventure even greater. Just one example: The new Denali Square at the recently renovated McKinley Chalet Resort. Set at the entrance to Denali National Park, it features a new two-story panoramic restaurant; the Gold Nugget Saloon, with nightly entertainment; and an artists-in-residence cabin.

Truth is, you'll enjoy an enhanced experience wherever you travel with Holland America. Follow the path of the ancient Vikings even as you relax in a totally reimagined Suite with plush new amenities. Explore the shores of Ireland and Scotland before sitting down to farm-to-table, artisanal dishes in your ship's Culinary Arts Center. Stretch your legs while wandering medieval cities in the Baltic, then, back aboard, dance the night away at B.B. King's Blues Club. Or: Join a hands-on workshop in America's Test Kitchen while getting a taste of the Mediterranean aboard the ms Westerdam, newly updated for the 2017 season.

ADVISOR
TIP

Holland America's exciting new partnership with BBC Earth brings natural history to life on board through special concerts, films, children's activities, and more.

In the heart of Denali Canyon, the McKinley Chalet Resort offers an array of excursions.

French Polynesia (Society, Tuamotu, and Marquesas isles) and the Cook Islands

SOME ENCHANTED EVENING, YOU MAY SEE ...

“O Tahiti E, a local dance troupe from Moorea, which joins sailings for a night to perform. They’re fantastic! Les Gauguines and Les Gauguins, the ship’s onboard Polynesian entertainers, also provide performances throughout each voyage.”

CABIN TO SPLURGE ON:

“I love Owner’s Suite 701. It has a 77-square-foot veranda and includes butler service.”

MOST PEOPLE DON’T KNOW THAT ...

“Tahiti is an easy trip from the U.S. West Coast: less than eight hours by air. Its unspoiled beauty is reminiscent of Hawaii – 75 years ago.”

ITINERARY TO BOOK:

“The 10- or 11-night Society Islands and Tuamotus voyage, sailing round-trip from Papeete. Seven-night cruises are simply not long enough!”

SHIP REVIEW

Artistry at Sea

Paul Gauguin’s namesake ship paints a pretty picture in the South Pacific.

Gary Johnson has had a long love affair with French Polynesia. The Seattle-based Virtuoso travel-agency owner (whose license plate, incidentally, reads “TAHITI”) has visited the islands more times than he can count. His favorite way to explore this seductive destination? Aboard the sleek Paul Gauguin, a ship specifically designed to sail the South Pacific’s shallow seas.

WAS IT LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT?

“I took my first Paul Gauguin cruise in 1998 and was instantly hooked. I just returned from my 12th voyage on this ship.”

YOUR FAVORITE FEATURES:

“For starters: the ship’s size. With just a few hundred guests, there’s plenty of room on board. And nearly three-quarters of the staterooms have verandas. Other pluses: 24/7 room service, all-inclusive pricing, and great food.”

SPEAKING OF GREAT FOOD:

“The Gauguin’s fresh fish is without compare. Be sure to try the poisson cru, a traditional Tahitian dish, with a glass of chilled rosé.”

GAUGUIN GUESTS ARE TYPICALLY ...

“Active, youthful (or young at heart), and scuba/snorkeling enthusiasts.”

KIDS LOVE THE SHIP’S ENVIRONMENTAL PROGRAM BECAUSE ...

“An eight-year-old guest on my recent voyage said it best: ‘I will never think of the ocean the same way again.’ ”

Jacques Bistro serves classic French dishes inspired by the master chef's family recipes.

Lavish Owners Suites measure nearly 1,000 square feet.

Sirena features two fresh new dining experiences.

Oceania Cruises

WORLDWIDE

Foodies have long favored Oceania Cruises, which boasts the finest cuisine at sea, curated by master chef Jacques Pépin. There's never an extra charge for specialty dining, and new epicurean-focused shore excursions immerse you in the local culinary culture on, say, a chef-led market tour or private winery visit. Yet there's much more on the menu aboard Oceania's intimate, midsize ships. Expand your horizons with enrichment programs, stay in shape with yoga and indoor cycling classes, indulge in a signature Canyon Ranch SpaClub treatment, and gain access to the exclusive Spa Terrace with Concierge-level accommodations.

ADVISOR TIP

Book Oceania's limited-time OLife Choice package, which includes airfare and unlimited internet plus your choice of free shore excursions, beverage package, or shipboard credit.

Cunard® Line

EUROPE

Life takes on a more refined air when you travel around Europe on a Queen. White-gloved waitstaff offers platters of delectable cakes and scones during proper Afternoon Tea, and fine bubbly is served by the glass in the Veuve Clicquot Champagne Bar. Esteemed experts and personalities add a stimulating dimension to Cunard's Insights lecture-series enrichment program, while onboard entertainment includes Grammy-winning performers and lavish stage productions in the Royal Court Theatre – the first at sea to feature private boxes. # WHAT FLOATS YOUR BOAT?

Today's cruise ships and styles offer something for everyone, but in a sea – and river – of choices, it's best to have a travel advisor help you navigate your options. To begin, we asked five cruise specialists to suggest a few of their favorite ways to get on board.

	SHIP	WATERS CRUISED	WORTH NOTING	WELCOME DIVERSIONS	CABIN(S) TO BOOK
STYLISH ADVENTURE Advisor: Lynda Johnson, Fort Worth	Ponant's L'Austral (264 passengers) 	Antarctica, Arctic, Mediterranean, northern Europe, South Pacific, and more	 "L'Austral appeals to the traveler who likes luxury and fine food and wine, but is an explorer looking for unique destinations – the 'road less traveled.'"	"On Ponant's expedition cruises, a team of naturalists joins excursions and gives presentations in the ship's theater."	"The Prestige and Deluxe staterooms – both 243 square feet, including the balcony – would be my first choice for most clients."
CLASSIC CRUISE Advisor: Kelli Surdell, Novato, California	Regent Seven Seas Cruises' Seven Seas Mariner (700 passengers) 	Alaska, Canada, Caribbean, Mexico, South America, and more 	"Seven Seas Mariner is the world's first all-suite, all-balcony ship." 	"A Tension-Zone massage for neck and shoulders in the Canyon Ranch SpaClub is a great way to work out kinks."	"Book a Horizon Suite and you'll feel like you're on your own private yacht. I also love the Penthouse Suite with its expansive living room – perfect for entertaining guests before dinner."
RIVER ROAMING Advisor: Ian Johnson, Bothell, Washington	AmaWaterways' AmaPrima (164 passengers)	 The Danube, Main, and Rhine rivers; the Black Sea 	"AmaPrima has two things you won't find on most river vessels: a giant chess board and a heated pool with a swim-up bar on the sundeck."	"The ship carries a fleet of complimentary bicycles for independent or guided excursions in port." 	"One of the twin balcony staterooms, which feature both a French balcony and a separate outside veranda."

SEA GALLERIES

World-class art adds a “wow” factor to new ships, both inside and out.

Island-hopping with Pablo – Art aficionados can get their gallery fix while venturing to tropical climes this winter aboard the new Seven Seas Explorer from Regent Seven Seas Cruises. “Explorer is unique in that it’s actually a floating art museum,” raves Virtuoso travel advisor Ruth Turpin of Fort Worth, Texas. “There are four Picassos, plus hundreds more pieces of fine art, sculptures, and glass figures. Regent has done an outstanding job of curating a masterpiece at sea.” Expect over-the-top opulence throughout, from the main restaurant’s specially designed Versace plates to the Regent Suite’s $150,000 Savoir No. 1 bed.

A Whale of a New Ship – Back in the 1980s, giant murals of whales and other marine life started popping up on the sides of buildings across the U.S. The artist, Wyland, helped awaken a new consciousness regarding ocean conservation and climate change. Dubbed the “marine Michelangelo,” Wyland was commissioned by Norwegian Cruise Line to create a design for the hull for its new Norwegian Bliss, due to launch in summer 2018 in the marine life-rich waters of Alaska. Life-size whales, porpoises, and other sea creatures will adorn the youngest ship to explore the Great Land, and will make an unmistakable statement in its home port of Seattle.

Clockwise, from top: Rendering of the Norwegian Bliss in Alaska; Regent executive Frank Del Rio poses with a Picasso; the Compass Rose restaurant on Seven Seas Explorer.

The Atrium, the ship's soaring lobby, is airy and flooded with natural light.

Seabourn Cruise Line

WORLDWIDE

What is the Seabourn difference? The difference between a stateroom and a spacious suite, most likely one with a private teak verandah. Between a monologue lecture and a stimulating conversation. Between needing to calculate the cost of every beverage vs. enjoying always-open bars, free-flowing wines, complimentary Champagne – and gracious service delivered not for tips, but simply for your smile.

Award-winning dining is carefully prepared with the freshest quality ingredients, to include seasonal specialties that are perfectly executed to order by Seabourn's skilled chefs. Dishes inspired by Michelin-starred chef Thomas Keller further elevate Seabourn's cuisine, contributing to an unsurpassed dining experience unlike any other at sea.

You'll have a greater understanding of the places you visit, thanks to Seabourn's exclusive partnership with UNESCO; the organization arranges for esteemed onboard speakers and intriguing excursions to World Heritage sites around the world. The cruise line has also teamed up with such forces as master mixologist Brian Van Flandern and wellness guru Dr. Andrew Weil.

8 PORTS to Drop Anchor

Linger in these exciting cities with an overnight stay or extended pre-/post-cruise adventure.

Dubrovnik ~ The Old City, dubbed the “Pearl of the Adriatic,” is renowned for its medieval wall, red-tile roofs, and quietly beautiful beaches. An overnight on SeaDream’s seven-day Mediterranean voyage from Venice gives you plenty of time to tour locations used in the Game of Thrones HBO series and to taste wines in nearby Konavle Valley.

Vancouver ~ This hip Pacific Northwest city is a nature lovers’ paradise. You can cycle along the Seawall, kayak along the shore, and cross the Capilano Suspension Bridge before hopping aboard the Rocky Mountaineer for one of its several pre-/post-cruise rail journeys through the Canadian Rockies.

Buenos Aires ~ The “Paris of South America” exudes a sophisticated vibe with its posh boutiques and lively cafés. A 15-day sojourn around Cape Horn with Princess Cruises ends in the city, giving you plenty of time to take a tango lesson and stroll through famous La Recoleta cemetery, the final resting place of Eva Peron.

Lyon ~ The gastronomic capital of France (some would argue the world) is lined with Michelin-starred restaurants and humble bouchons serving duck pâté and other rich Lyonnaise specialties. Get your fill of this culinary hub on an 11-day Saône River cruise with Avalon Waterways.

Hobart ~ Tasmania is touted as Australia’s best-kept secret, and Royal Caribbean’s six-day, round-trip cruise from Sydney spends two full days in its charming capital. So, you’ll have more time to feed koalas and wombats at the Bonorong Wildlife Sanctuary and explore the former penal colony at Port Arthur.

Budapest ~ Eight bridges over the Danube connect ancient Buda and its castle with the more modern Pest. Discover treasures on both sides before or after a river cruise, then board Belmond Trains legendary Venice Simplon-Orient-Express for a two-day rail journey to Venice.

Dubai ~ Bustling souqs and expansive malls, Bedouin desert camps and heart-pounding water parks, camel racing and indoor skiing: The UAE’s most glamorous city is a seamless blend of the ancient and the audaciously modern. Azamara Club Cruises spends two days in Dubai – with a focus on golf – during an 11-day voyage around the Arabian Gulf and Emirates.

Havana ~ Cuba’s time capsule of a capital is the hottest spot in the Western Hemisphere. Visit Ernest Hemingway’s home, dance to son music at the Buena Vista Social Club, and take a ride in a classic “Yank Tank” when Star Clippers overnights there during an 11-day cruise around the island.
