

EMPLOYER COVID REFERENCE GUIDE

As Centra, we recognize there are a multitude of information sources and recommendations directed at employers related to reopening in the midst of COVID-19. We have reviewed the information in the following links and believe it to be scientifically factual. We recommend these sources to you for use during the continued evolution of this pandemic.

The main resource we look to is the Centers for Disease Control & Prevention (CDC). Use the following link for Interim Guidance for Businesses and Employers Responding to Coronavirus Disease :
