I, the undersigned, as a Military Veteran Purchaser have applied for a Louisiana Housing Corporation Mortgage Credit Certificate to purchase the property listed above who having been first duly sworn and say:

1. I understand that the Internal Revenue Code provides that applicants who are veterans (and their spouses, or co-borrowers) and who have not previously received a Mortgage Revenue Bond loan or a Mortgage Credit Certificate under the special veteran's exception need not meet the first-time homebuyer requirement.
2. I understand that the United States Code definition of "Veteran" is a person who has served in the active military, naval, or air force, and who was discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable.
3. I understand that a Mortgage Revenue Bond loan is a mortgage loan financed through the sale of tax-exempt bonds issued by a state or local housing finance agency.
4. I understand that a Mortgage Credit Certificate allows me to convert a portion of my mortgage interest deduction allowed for my primary residence into Federal income tax credit.

I hereby represent and warrant that:

1. I do meet the United States Code definition of a "Veteran" and to evidence this, I have attached DD Form 214 – Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty.
2. I have not received or been the beneficiary of a Mortgage Revenue Bond loan or Mortgage Credit Certificate from any state or local government unit for my principal residence pursuant to a special exception for veterans enacted January 3, 2008.

I further understand that if I made any material misstatements in the forgoing representations, such misstatements will be considered an event of default and will result in the immediate revocation of Mortgage Credit Certificate, deeming the Mortgage Credit Certificate null and void, without any further action by Louisiana Housing Corporation.
