

The “Planning & Support” Question About Your Prayer Life

As you consider your plan, you’re keeping in mind what came before—your current situation, your “dream” prayer life, and obstacles. And now you ask, “In light of all that, what now?” How will you get to the Son in prayer? Write out your answers in a journal or on this worksheet. As you do, let the Holy Spirit coach you to pray.

What action steps will you take?

When will you do them?

Who can support you as you move forward?

How will you know when you’ve had victory?

What may get in the way?

What might God say to you right now?
