

CFO Services for Churches

Charles P Myrick CPA has earned a reputation as one of Washington DC's top accounting firms when it comes to providing quality, personalized financial guidance to religious organizations. We were recognized in 2016 and 2017 as Best Accounting Firm in DC (Washington City Paper, Annual Readers' Poll).

Our mission is to help maintain financial viability in the present while taking a proactive approach to achieve future goals. This requires open communication to reach an understanding of our clients' needs through research and sound analysis.

Specialized Expertise

We know that religious organizations have unique needs when it comes to financial management and planning. Charles P Myrick CPA has solid experience working with churches that provide a variety of services to the community. We offer our faith-based clients specialized expertise in the areas of:

- Financial management
- Bill payment system
- Cash flow and budgeting analysis systems
- Tax services
- Auditing and assurance services
- Internal controls
- Ministry expenses - tracking to budget

CFO Services

This service includes year-round accounting, auditing, and financial advisory services to faith-based organizations. Myrick CPA helps churches throughout the DC metro region organize, monitor, and manage their money and assets for greater financial stability.

Contact us today to further discuss your organization's financial needs.

Charles P Myrick CPA is a Washington, DC-based accounting firm that specializes in providing CFO services to churches. We provide our church and nonprofit clients with cash flow and budgeting analysis systems that help analyze spending, and re-balance budgets and/or debts for an optimal cash flow. Get in touch today for a complimentary consultation.